Dear [Name],

Thank you for your generous donation of $AMOUNT to support Acterra's environmental and community-building activities.

Your contribution plays a vital role in our efforts to provide thousands of Silicon Valley residents with the support and opportunities they need to live sustainably, become environmental leaders, combat global warming and create and restore local habitats.

Two of the projects that your contribution helps support are the new High Energy Homes Program and our Arastradero Preserve Stewardship Project.

- The High Energy Homes Program aims to reduce energy consumption in homes where the average energy use is three times that of a typical Northern California home. High Energy Homes joins Acterra's original energy assessment program—Green@Home—that has already prevented over 1-million pounds in CO2 emissions, a primary contributor to global warming.
- The Palo Alto-based Arastradero Preserve Stewardship Project focuses on habitat restoration and environmental education in an effort to encourage widespread adoption of healthy land practices by the general public. Last year, nearly 1,000 students and other young people volunteered their time and learned about the ecosystem through this popular program.

We will continue to build these and our other programs, expanding them to reach more neighborhoods, schools, and community groups — with the goal of helping thousands more people in our region live sustainable lifestyles.

We appreciate your great support and commitment to our environment—we couldn't do the good work without you!

Warmest regards,

Michael Closson
Executive Director

Dear «Gf_CnAdrSal_Salutation»:

Each day we welcome those who come to this special place to fulfill a simple wish: to walk its gentle, winding paths and be surrounded by the splendor of the natural world. Others come to the Arboretum with a more spirited goal in mind—they jog, they run, they bicycle. Still others visit with watercolorbrush or camera in hand to capture the beauty of the native plants, trees, marshes and meadows taking home a memory of their time in the woods.

Our outreach to these diverse peoples would not be possible without the support of Arboretum friends like you. We are most grateful for your generous gift of «Gf_Amount» to the Arboretum's 2010 Annual Appeal. Thank you.

Adkins Arboretum fills a critical role for our community. With a mission of fostering best stewardship practices and creative collaborations in pursuit of a healthier and more beautiful Chesapeake Bay region, the Arboretum strives to serve as a model for sustainable land management and ecological restoration.

Your gift helps the Arboretum accomplish its mission through conservation, outreach and education. Donations to our Annual Appeal also allow the Arboretum to offer a full array of engaging education programs that draw a diverse group of visitors and participants, who are emboldened with knowledge and awareness to enhance their backyards, their neighborhoods, and their communities.

I hope you will participate in this year's programs and events and that you'll share the Arboretum with friends and family. Thank you again. I look forward to seeing you at the Arboretum soon.

Best wishes,

The Internal Revenue Service recognizes the Adkins Arboretum as a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization. Please note no goods or services were exchanged, and this donation is deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.

On behalf of our doctors and cancer research team at the BC Cancer Agency, please accept our sincere thanks for your recent gift to the BC Cancer Foundation.

Your generous contribution is helping to maintain the momentum of progress in the field of cancer research here in British Columbia. While chemotherapy, radiation therapy and surgery are the standard treatments for cancer, your support is enabling us to develop innovative new treatment options that are giving hope to thousands of patients, particularly those with difficult-to-treat cancers.

Thanks to scientific advances over the years the chances for someone to recover from cancer are much better today than that of thirty, twenty, or even ten years ago. Survival rates are improving. Yet, cancer remains a major health threat to all of us.

The importance of your continued support cannot be understated. We need you and people like you to support our efforts if we are to increase survival rates for cancer even further in the next couple of years. Please appreciate that you are making a difference in the lives of people who are touched by cancer.

Once again, thank you for your generous support. If you ever have any questions, please feel free to call our office at (604) 877-6040. You may also wish to visit our website at www.bccancerfoundation.com to learn more about how your support advances cancer research right here in British Columbia.

Thank you again for your support.

Dear ,

On behalf of over 130 youth who benefit from the programs of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater High Point-Central Club in Asheboro, we want to express our deep appreciation for your 2010 United Way designated donation of $50 to go towards providing hope and opportunity to youth in the Asheboro community. It is the support of caring people that allows us to provide the guidance and opportunities needed to empower disadvantaged youth to overcome the obstacles and challenges in their young lives.

Does the Boys & Girls Club make a difference in the lives of young people? We ask you to judge for yourself. Our 2009-10 annual program evaluation provided continued evidence of our effectiveness. These are just a few examples of how your support improved the lives of children!

- Our academic intervention efforts were evaluated with 67 individual Club member report cards and they showed that 94% of them maintained or improved average to above average grades.
- Another 16 students were referred to the Clubs by the school, because they were having academic problems, and 94% of these youth maintained or improved average to above average grades.
- Club members also gave back to Asheboro by providing 795 hours of community service.

While we are proud of our young people and their accomplishments, there is still much work to be done to support these children and the ones following them. That is why your support is so important. In the months to come we will report the progress of our programs and Club members through our quarterly postcard. Please take a moment to read this publication, so that you can see how your investment is working in the lives of children.

Thank you again for your commitment to giving every child a chance to reach their full potential. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Holly Ferree
Vice President of Development

Dear XXX:

Rumor has it that XXX has contributed some wonderful computer hardware to our Catholic schools. Thank you for the thoughtful gift, and for helping to keep our students where they should be in terms of technology.

You have a great team in XXX, XXX and others and I want you to know how much the support from XXX means to our work – and to me, personally.

Have a nice day.

Best regards,

December 14, 2010

Dear XXX,

On behalf of all of us involved with the Catholic schools—most especially the great students we serve—thank you for your awesome pledge of XXXXX to rebuild the XXXXXX. We are grateful for the first payment of XXXX from XXXX, which was received today.

In gratitude for this leadership pledge, we are honored to name the front first floor of the school in memory of XXXXX. This is a beautiful tribute to your family's friend who was a religious sister. We will be sure to confer with you on how the recognition plaque should read, once the renovations are underway.

We are doing all we can to raise the needed funds for the schools and your pledge has helped move us forward in a tremendous way! We have just begun to fundraise for this project and we already have more than $XX toward a goal of $XXX. Thank you for your early vote of confidence.

I enclose a small remembrance in gratitude for your support. The book was compiled from lessons that our students wrote on what constitute a good investment. When you look at the faces of our students in this book, you will see the goodness, beauty and potential that lies within each, it is clear that they are the best investment that we can make.

Thank you again for all you do for our Catholic schools and the many other important causes in our community. My best to both of you for a joyous and blessed Christmas season. I hope that we might arrange for you to visit the XXX campus in 2011 to see first-hand how your gift will be used.

Sincerely,

December 7, 2010

Dear XXXX,

How wonderful to get your email regarding your pledge of $250,000 over five years to the XXXXX in support of the XXXX! Your gift will provide critical support that will help rebuild XXXX.

Our work with Catholic schools is reaching new heights every day; we have developed a comprehensive new educational model, including new academic and faith formation curricula, renovated buildings and infrastructure, improved teacher compensation and professional development and a new regional organization of schools that will mean stronger, better-financed Catholic schools. Our goal is that every child who wants to attend a Catholic school in our area—Catholic or not—will have that opportunity.

Thank you for your support. Adding the XXXX to your list of important causes means a great deal to us and to the students who are the ultimate beneficiaries of your generosity.

Sincerely,

October 2010

Dear NAME,

On behalf of the children we serve, I would like to sincerely thank you and FOUNDATION for your generous gift of AMOUNT that we received on DATE.

This year we plan to offer critical advocacy services to at least 2,000 Harris County foster children with 46 staff members and more than 700 trained volunteers. Because of your generosity, these children will experience safety, love, hope and the promise of a bright future.

While we are extremely proud to have served more than 16,000 children in our 26-year history, we know our work would not be possible without the support of donors like you. Your generous donations have allowed us to speak up for children like...

4-month-old Christy, who arrived at the hospital with three broken ribs and a broken collar bone. Her parents admitted they have a temper.

12-year-old Rachele, whose mother beat her with a stick when she couldn't find her shoes. She told police her brother also beat her and her mom's boyfriend touched her inappropriately.

2-month-old Marcus, whose mother tested positive for cocaine, opiates, amphetamines, and benzodiazepines the day he was born.

While these stories are heartbreaking, we take comfort in the fact that since 1984, we have provided a voice in the system to guide these children into safe, stable and permanent homes. While we were one of only a handful of Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) programs when we began, because of support like yours, we have grown to become the largest volunteer-driven CASA program in the nation.

Again, we'd like to thank you and the FOUNDATION for your donation. We appreciate your belief in our work and your great generosity. Together we are making a significant impact on the lives of Houston's most vulnerable residents.

Sincerely,

Sonya Galvan

Dear «Salutation»:

For more than 50 years Courage Center Camps have provided camping programs for people of all ages and physical abilities. Your recent gift of «Amount» helps make this exciting and unique camping experience possible. Thank you!

When 7-year-old Saxony Pohlman's physical therapist suggested she might benefit from going to Camp Courage, Saxony hated the idea. "I kept trying to figure out why my parents were punishing me. What had I done wrong?"

That was 11 summers ago. Now age 18 and a camp pro Saxony says, "Oh, my gosh, I wouldn't miss Camp for the world! It's fantastic!" While she enjoys all camp activities Saxony, who has cerebral palsy, "absolutely loves" tubing and horseback riding. Most of all Saxony loves the freedom of Camp – the freedom to do things "you probably can't do at home" and to interact with others.

The experiences at Courage Center Camps help campers like Saxony develop personal strengths like self-esteem, honesty, responsibility and self-reliance. Kids also have plenty of time to socialize and have fun in beautiful, fully accessible, resort-like facilities.

This past summer, Saxony was asked to talk to homesick 'newbies.' "After all, I know exactly what they're going through," she said, recalling her emotional first camping session. "It really helps to have a fellow camper understand and tell you it's OK to be homesick. I even tell them it's OK to be afraid: Camp is a new environment, and you can't possibly know what to expect. But I also tell them to have an open attitude. Think of time at camp as independence, because it really is. Be yourself and have fun. Embrace who you are."

As you can see, Courage Center Camps change lives. Your donation helps make our camps available to all who want to attend, regardless of ability to pay. Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Dear:

Thank you so much for the donation of $1,000.00 to Dallas Area Rape Crisis Center (DARCC). The Board of Directors and I are so appreciative of 'Corporation's name' gift.

With the financial undergirding from corporations like yours, as well as grants from foundations, individuals, and the government, we were able to provide hospital advocacy for 55 sexual assault victims, and 24 of their friends and family members in our first full year of service. Answering 305 calls through our crisis hotline, our staff and trained volunteers were able to help those who have survived sexual abuse navigate the difficult journey of healing from their trauma, along with 70 of their family and friends. Through the referrals from these support systems, our professionally trained therapists have counseled 60 traumatized clients to date.

We sincerely appreciate your corporation's support in giving victims of Dallas County a choice for services.

Sincerely,

Dear XX,

On behalf of all of us at Ella Baker Center for Human Rights, thank you for your recent contribution. Our work would not be possible without the support of community members like you.

Your gift allows the Ella Baker Center to connect economic and environmental justice, create opportunities for young activists, help reconnect families torn apart by the prison system and so much more. Through our campaigns and the work of our movement, the Ella Baker Center strives for a better future where all people and communities can thrive.

Please note that though our physical address has changed, all telephone and email contacts remain the same. In addition to our move, this year marks another milestone for the Ella Baker Center: Our 15th Anniversary. We hope that you will participate in our various events throughout the year, and join us for a formal celebration in September at the Annual Ella Awards.

Dear Dan & Jill,

Thank you for making a difference at the Free Clinic of Southwest Washington. As the future of our Nation's health care programs remain uncertain, so do the programs offered locally in Washington and in Clark County. It is now, more than ever, that the Free Clinic needs support from donors like you to ensure low-income, uninsured individuals receive the quality health care they deserve.

In April, the medical clinic had 724 patient visits and the dental program had 189 visits. The dispensary filled 808 prescriptions – all for free. Each of these programs is 100 percent volunteer supported and in March, volunteers donated 2,300 hours of service. The Free Clinic continues to provide each of these quality programs to our community thanks to your belief that all people deserve to be healthy.

Enclosed you will find a thank you letter that was recently written by a Free Clinic patient. We hope you will remember that your gift really does make a difference not just to this individual, but to the thousands of patients the Free Clinic sees each year. On behalf of the patients, volunteers and staff of the Free Clinic, please accept our thanks and gratitude for your support.

Sincerely,

Dear:

Thank you for your support through your recent gift of $ to the Great Lakes Center for Youth Development. Your donation helps us continue to work with U.P. youth-serving and other nonprofit organizations of all sizes and missions that play a critical role in creating the kind of environment youth need.

For example, during our recent U.P. Nonprofit Conference, we had the great privilege of announcing the beginning of our “Strong Organizations – Strong Youth” (SOSY) program. Funding from the Compassion Capital Campaign Fund has paid for us to assist 50 organizations across the U.P. Response to this program was greater than we had ever imagined, and we had over 100 organizations apply for help.

In the past month, our youth development associates have been helping U.P. communities learn to use the results of the Profiles of Student Life: Attitudes and Behaviors survey. We held the Marquette and Alger Youth Summit which brought over 40 youth from across both counties together for a day-long exploration of their Youth Asset Report. At the Summit, the youth identified priority assets that they wish to address over the next two years. In Dickinson and Iron counties, we partnered with the Dickinson – Iron Healthy Youth Coalition to assist at their 11th Annual Youth Asset Celebration. School teams identified priority assets that they will work on in their schools during this next year. Early in 2010, we will facilitate a Youth Summit for Gogebic and Ontonagon youth to help them identify their priorities using their recently-released Youth Asset Report.

At the Center, we are able to witness the dedicated efforts of our youth-serving and nonprofit organizations across the U.P. Like you, we at the Great Lakes Center for Youth Development believe that it takes strong organizations in the U.P. to create and support a positive youth environment.

We are a 501(c)3 non-profit organization and your donation to us is tax-deductible. Feel free to keep this letter as a record for tax purposes. Thank you again for your gift and for helping us build -- Strong Organizations...Strong Youth.

Sincerely,

J

Dear <Salutation>. <Last Name>:

On behalf of our staff, board and most of all, the people and organizations we serve, thank you for your generous gift of $<donation amount> to the Great Lakes Center for Youth Development. When we talk about the “good news” in our region, you are among the important supporters of U.P. nonprofits helping to make it happen!

We’ve recently held celebrations to honor the youth serving and nonprofit organizations that participated in our Strong Organizations...Strong Youth Program to strengthen their operations. While we wanted to highlight their hard work and efforts, we repeatedly heard how thankful they were to receive the consulting and training through the program. There was such an air of excitement, gratitude and success that I wish I could have bottled it to share with you!

Maya Angelou once said, “I have found that among its other benefits, giving liberates the soul of the giver.” While a letter can’t share the passion and sentiment of these organizations, I trust you know how important your gift is to me, my staff and board and especially those we serve.

By contributing to the Great Lakes Center for Youth Development, you are taking an active role in supporting U.P. nonprofits and creating a healthy youth environment. We are a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization and your donation to us is tax-deductible. Feel free to keep this letter as a record for tax purposes.

Thank you, again, for believing in our mission and helping make the U.P. a great place to live.

Sincerely,

"Without the Guild, I would most likely still be sitting in my home, unsure of what I could do next."

This quote from Maria, whose story we shared with you in our recent letter, is why the Guild exists. We know that vision loss is not an end of a life, but a new beginning. As Maria says, "It may be difficult and you may trip along the way, but you are stronger for the struggle and can accomplish so much with the help of the people at the Guild for the Blind."

Thank you for your donation of $Amount. Your support will help to ensure that we will be there to help the next person who calls or walks through our doors, unsure of what they can do to learn to live their lives again.

Your generous gift will help expand our computer training center—creating new classes and reaching out to new audiences. It will help as we begin our new support group specifically for people with Diabetic Retinopathy next month. Your gift will be used to build these programs and all the other training we provide to help people like Maria regain their confidence and reclaim their lives as active, independent members of their families and their communities.

Thank you for your generous support and your belief in our mission and those we serve.

Dear SALUTATION,

On behalf of the many clients of ORG NAME, thank you for your generous gift of SXX. We are deeply appreciative of your support, which will help five thousand job seekers this year to build their skills, to find jobs, and to support themselves and their families.

Thousands of people in our community face the harsh reality of a "jobless" economic recovery. At ORG NAME, we are assisting individuals from every walk of life. Some of our clients are seasoned professionals who thought they could go it alone, but have turned to us for help after months of fruitless job searching. Others are older adults who have never had to search for work before, but are suddenly encountering a new landscape of online applications, social networking and LinkedIn. Still other clients come to us with a range of barriers – disabilities, limited language skills, minimal experience and education – fearing that they don't stand a chance in an over-saturated labor market.

Thankfully, your generosity makes it possible for us to advance ORG NAME clients along the path toward meaningful jobs at good wages. From re-vamping a resume, to supporting a young person with disabilities through the college application process, to helping dislocated workers to re-train into a brand-new profession, your donation funds over two dozen programs to meet the varied needs of job seekers. We couldn't transform so many lives without your help!

Once again, please accept my gratitude for your gift. And if you know anyone who could benefit from our services, please call us at 415-782-6265.

Dear:

Wishes are only limited by a child's imagination. Every day, our volunteers meet wish children and ask them a very simple question, "If you could have one wish, what would it be?" Maybe it's not that simple of a question, It opens up a world of possibilities that include being able to go anywhere, have anything, be anything or meet anyone. Having the ability to make the answer to that question come true, however, is possible because of generous people like you, who participate in our Adopt-A-Wish program.

You made it possible for wish child to have his/her wish come true and for his/her family to experience hope, strength and joy. I could tell you about his/her wish but I believe the enclosed wish story will convey how you helped us share the power of a wish®.

Last year, we successfully granted 13,580 wishes, the most ever in our 30-year history. The average cost of a wish today stands at $7,286 and your support of our Adopt-A-Wish program will help us achieve our goal of fulfilling over 13,000 wishes again this year.

I hope that you will take a moment to think about the impact you have made on wish child and his/her family. Time and time again we hear that a wish is not simply a gift, but much needed therapy for a family going through a very difficult time in life. We hear that just when the child with a life-threatening medical condition is exhausted mentally, physically and emotionally, a wish is granted and the child has the energy to continue battling their illness.

On behalf of wish child and the thousands of very courageous children who will experience the power of a wish® in the coming months, thank you for making wishes come true.

Sincerely,

Dear «Salutation»:

We smile every time we think of you, because that's what your recent gift to the Make-A-Wish Foundation® has brought to a child's face.

On behalf of everyone at the Make-A-Wish Foundation, I want to thank you for your recent gift of «Amount» on «Gift_date» to the Make-A-Wish Foundation® of «Donor_Intent_1». Your generous support, combined with the heartfelt help of others, enables us to grant the heartfelt wishes of children like 12-year-old Tabitha.

A native of southern Florida – home of beaches, sunshine and palm trees – Tabitha wanted to have a true New York City experience like the kind she'd only seen in the movies. She felt like a celebrity when a stretch limousine arrived at her house to begin her five-day “New York Experience.”

After flying to New York City, Tabitha and her family settled into a posh hotel located blocks from Central Park, Roosevelt Island and Times Square. When they weren't touring sites such as the Statue of Liberty and the American Museum of Natural History, Tabitha and her family enjoyed theater tickets to see no fewer than three Broadway shows. A carriage ride through Central Park completed Tabitha's Big Apple experience, just like the kind she'd seen on the big screen.

Your generosity made it possible for the Make-A-Wish Foundation to grant Tabitha's wish, along with the wishes of more than 13,580 courageous kids like her last year. We thank you for all you do to share the power of a wish®.

Best wishes,

On behalf of Northlight Theatre's Board of Trustees, artists and staff, thank you so much for your recent gift of $X with your subscription renewal to our 2011-12 season. Per your request, we will be sure to list your gift in our stagebill as XXXX throughout this and next season.

Northlight's 2011-12 season features an exciting collection of new work, audience favorites and some of the best artists Chicago has to offer. We are thrilled to be working with Stephen Schwartz, the current king of Broadway, on the Midwest premiere of Snapshots. You'll see classic comedy in Alan Ayckbourn's riotously funny Season's Greetings, which was last season's smash hit at London's National Theatre. E. Faye Butler is back in Northlight's third show of the season, Black Pearl Sings!, a stirring tale filled with rousing songs. The real Wisconsin estate of Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne will come to life in the historically significant Ten Chimneys. And our final production, the Tony Award nominated [title of show], will sensationally end our 37th season. We ask our audiences to take a journey with us through a wide array of styles and genres, to engage in the artistic process, and to fully explore the range of perspective that we have to present.

Much of this is possible due to your wonderful support. Your generous gifts have created opportunities for nurturing new playwrights, revisiting and re-thinking classic works, and hiring the best and brightest artists. Thank you for your enduring generosity.

We hope to see you at the Theatre soon!

Best regards,

I am writing to gratefully acknowledge your generous contribution to the Foundation in support of . It is only thanks to your continued support that we are accelerating the world's most promising prostate cancer research and priming the pipeline for new, life-saving treatments for metastatic disease.

On the horizon is an exciting host of research opportunities that your support will make possible. Increased investment around PCF-funded discoveries such as the stem "cell of origin" for human prostate cancer; the 25 unique molecular subtypes of prostate cancer; and the groundbreaking sequencing of 7 whole prostate cancer genomes could help us develop more effective and efficient therapeutics to diagnose, treat, and prevent prostate cancer.

Mapping cancer types will enable treatment scientists to determine the potential severity of prostate cancers at earlier stages, bringing us closer to our single goal of ending death and suffering from prostate cancer. With your support, PCF is staking out even more new territory in the fight against prostate cancer in 2011 with the launch of a major round of research awards. We continue to recruit the talent and resources necessary to keep the pace with a rapidly changing research landscape.

The precious funds you have donated are invaluable to our continued successes. On behalf of our Board of Directors, and the nearly 16 million men battling prostate cancer worldwide today, we are deeply grateful.

Dear FIRST NAME,

Thank you for your recent gift to the Southwest Washington Medical Center Foundation. I appreciate your willingness to help Southwest provide the highest quality medical care to all who enter our doors.

Because your gift solely supports Southwest Washington Medical Center, your gift may well benefit your own family, friends or neighbors. Many of our donors support patients at the beginning or end of their lives by giving to our neonatal intensive care unit or our hospice programs. Others provide support for new facilities and the latest medical technology. Still others support charity care for our region's most vulnerable residents. No matter which of our forty funds you support, rest assured that 100% of your gift will benefit your area of interest.

The Southwest Foundation is honored to count you among our donors and hopes you will continue to support Southwest Washington Medical Center in the years to come.

Dear Donor,

Sending HUGE thanks and personal appreciation for your generous donation of _____ to Thompson Child & Family Focus. As we get ready to celebrate our 125th year, I wanted to take a minute and share one of the ways your gift impacts the newest members of the Thompson family at our Child Development Center.

The children recently spent several months learning about author and illustrator Eric Carle as part of our specialized art program. Students created art reflecting both the literary content and illustration style of the author and then proudly exhibited it in a recent Art Show. For the majority of these children, it was their first exposure to learning about the Arts.

Young hosts and hostesses took great pride and responsibility as they showed their parents and loved ones their “special creations.” My heart burst with joy watching them and I know you would have felt as much happiness as I for these budding artists. So on behalf of the children and families we serve, I thank you for your faith and commitment. Moments such as this would truly not be possible without supporters like you.

Warm regards,

Working together, the lives we change represent a sound investment for countless successful futures. Recent comments from our Thompson Family illustrate the daily victories that occur:

"I feel at ease that my child is in a loving environment, and I mean loving.
Thank you for providing a safe haven for children and families."

---Thompson parent

"What I like most about Thompson is how we talk at the end of the day."

---Thompson child

"I love my job because I have a chance to help children believe in themselves, to help them believe that they will be healed and conquer all of their obstacles!"

---Thompson staff member

Thank you for your continued interest and great care. The Thompson Family continues to grow and flourish because of you.

Dear Salutation,

On behalf of all our young patients and their families, I am pleased to thank you for your gift of $ to the Children’s Hospital at Albany Medical Center.

Ours is the only hospital in the region that is a lifeline – 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – for seriously ill or injured infants, children, and teenagers. When challenged by extraordinarily difficult diagnoses, families from all over northeast New York and western New England know that this is the place to bring their children. We have the first-rate clinical specialists, advanced facilities, and research expertise necessary to treat the full range of childhood medical concerns, from neonatal care to emergency medicine, infectious disease to childhood cancer.

But our Children’s Hospital staff has another critical capability that makes an incredible difference. As one patient’s mother told us last year: “You can’t fake caring. They all care.”

Your gift tells us that you do, too. Thank you for helping Albany Med extend its warm embrace to the wonderful, brave children and their families who come here – in ever greater numbers – for the extraordinarily successful and compassionate care that distinguish the Children’s Hospital at Albany Medical Center.

Sincerely,

Dear Salutation,

Thank you for your gift of $ on [date] to the [Fund Name].

As northeastern New York's only academic medical center, Albany Med is the unique provider of high quality and compassionate health care; nationally-recognized biomedical research; and outstanding education and training for physicians, researchers, and numerous health care professionals.

Our patient care is recognized among the best in the nation. Last year we saw more than 32,000 inpatients and 525,000 outpatients; among them were children. Many of the people who turn to us are those with the most complex medical conditions. They know they can rely on Albany Med to provide highly specialized life-saving care round the clock.

Like you, our patients know that the stellar health care for which Albany Med is known is the result of our three part mission - comes from not only of the cadre of dedicated medical staff at Albany Med, but of the medical college that attracts some of the most talented physicians to our area.

Our faculty physicians teach and guide the next generations of medical professionals, so that they will excel in their own careers in research and patient care, serving in their own communities. Our growing biomedical research program is earning national attention for its leading-edge initiatives.

Your support is vital to our success.

Thank you for your generous support of Albany Medical Center.

Sincerely,

Dear John,

Please accept this letter as an expression of my sincerest gratitude for your recent pledge to Cook Children's designated for the Endocrinology, Pulmonology and Gastroenterology floor in our new Specialty Clinics Building. As you know, our greatest need continues to be the expansion of our facility and your support ensures we will have ample space and resources to take care of children for many years to come. I am touched by your thoughtfulness and am excited to share with you the progress we are making as a result of the Fulfilling Our Promise campaign.

Our North Inpatient Tower is currently under construction and is expected to open this summer. This new tower will add 283,000 square feet and house 106 new NICU beds, 26 new Transitional Care and Rehab Care beds and 28 Hematology/Oncology beds. Construction of the outpatient Specialty Clinics Building and Ambulatory Surgery Center started last April and is scheduled to be complete in January 2012.

The expansion is a result of Cook Children's making a promise to improve the health of every child in our region through the prevention and treatment of illness, disease and injury. Increasingly, we are seeing patients from across the state and around the country. Our ability to respond to the needs of these patients is made possible because of partners like you.

Your support plays an integral part in our ability to serve more, build on the quality of care we provide and strengthen our family-centered services for which we have become recognized.

On behalf of the entire Cook Children's team and the patients we serve, thank you again for choosing to keep us close to your heart.

With highest regard,

John Smith

Best Practices Sheet
Stewardship Department

Gift Acknowledgment Process
Christina, Jessica

January 18, 2011

Objective:

1. To thank our donors in a friendly and personalized manner regardless of gift amount
2. To acknowledge receipt of gift and provide official tax receipt
3. To tell donors that their gift will be used as it was intended
4. To thank donors promptly — within 48 hours of gift receipt
5. To create opportunities for personalized interactions for donors

Tone:

- Tax receipts to be written in a voice that is intimate, warm, friendly and gracious
- Tax receipts to be donor-centric and empowering
- Tax receipts to heighten the role of the donor and minimize the role of “The Foundation” (i.e., “Generous supporters like you have enabled Sharp to...” vs. “The Foundation has...”)

Special Elements

~ Standard Gift Acknowledgment Process:

We will use a one-page, standard tax-receipt that also serves as a gift acknowledgment letter. Benefits of this include: less paper waste, greater ease in processing gift receipts and ensuring timely thank-you to donors.

- Messaging
 - Will include INSPIRE language
- Signatory:
 - Will depend on amount of gift:
 - For gifts $499 and $9,999, Director of Stewardship will sign.
 - For gifts more than $10,000, Director of Stewardship will take to CEO for personal signature.
- Quotes:
 - Each tax receipt will include a friendly and inspirational quote.
 - Quotes are to be warm, friendly and make the donor feel good about making their gift.
 - Quotes will be updated every quarter.
 - For the purposes of our general tax receipts, the lead quote will not be a Sharp-specific quote, which means that it will not be a patient, physician or employee quote. Sharp-specific quotes will be used in other stewardship communications including Impact newsletter, personalized and initiative-based updates and other communiqué.
- Conditional Merges within Tax Receipt Letter:
 - 1st conditional merge: tribute gift, GA gift, non-tribute gift
 - GA: Language will acknowledge that gift was made in honor of a caregiver and thank the donor for supporting Sharp
 - Tribute, Non-GA: Language will acknowledge that gift was made in honor of someone, and thank the donor for supporting Sharp
 - Non-tribute: Language will thank the donor for supporting Sharp
 - 2nd conditional merge: new Partner in Health, renew Partner in Health, non Partner in Health
 - New Partner in Health: Language will welcome donor and let them know that a welcome packet is on the way.
 - Renew Partner in Health: Language will thank donor for continued support at leadership level

Best Practices Sheet
Stewardship Department

- Partner in Health Additional Gift: Language will recognize PIH status and thank for continued support.
- Non Partner in Health: no membership language will be used

- Detailed Gift Receipt Fields:

- Gift Date
- Gift Amount
- Donor Recognition Name
- Paid by
- Fund
- Reference
- Receipt Number

~ Personalized Stewardship Process:

To create opportunities for personalized stewardship and customized, donor-centered relationships front-line staff and volunteers will be able to thank donors individually, separate from the gift acknowledgment and tax receipt process. Benefits of this include: more personalized opportunities for interaction and qualification, and greater flexibility in delivering individualized messages.

- Gifts with Gift Solicitor Listed:

- The daily gift report includes a gift solicitor. For the purposes of the Daily Gift Report, the "Gift Solicitor" may be either the Team Lead or the Gift Solicitor.
 - If the gift solicitor is the team lead, that individual is responsible for calling the donor and/or sending a personalized thank-you note on a SHF, Partner, Pillar or Legacy note card, and entering information into RE as "Action, Stewardship, Activity".
 - If the gift solicitor is different than the team lead, the two individuals are responsible for coordinating who should be responsible for follow-up, including calling the donor and/or sending a personalized thank-you note on a SHF, Partner, Pillar or Legacy note card, and entering information into RE as "Action, Stewardship, Activity".
- Phone call and/or note should go out within one week of the gift.
- For more detailed information, reference attachment "Sharp HealthCare Foundation Gift Acknowledgment Process Flow Chart"

- Gifts with no Gift Solicitor Listed:

- For donors without a team lead and when no gift solicitor is listed, the amount of the gift and the designation of the gift determines follow-up. Volunteers; SCVMC Development Officer; Director of Development, Pipeline; Directors of Development; and Vice Presidents will be responsible for reviewing the daily gift report and making the decision to call the donor or send a personalized thank-you note card, and entering information into RE as "Action, Stewardship, Activity".
- Phone call or note should go out within one week of the gift.
- For more detailed information, reference "Sharp HealthCare Foundation Gift Acknowledgment Process Flow Chart"

Administration

- Accountability:

- Team lead to enter Action / Stewardship / Activity in RE with the Notes Subject Line to read: Thank-You Call/Note for {date of gift} Gift.
 - Templates can be created for each Team Lead to streamline this task; Director of Stewardship can help to set up these templates.
 - Director of Stewardship to provide guidelines for implementation with volunteers, including scripting and entering information into RE.
- The Director of Stewardship will check daily gift report against weekly activity sheets to make sure that a note was sent or a call was made.

Best Practices Sheet
Stewardship Department

- An reminder email will be sent to Team Leads as necessary.
 - The Stewardship Department will provide metrics for review twice a year to show effectiveness of the Gift Acknowledgement process and volunteer involvement.
- Updates:
- Director of Stewardship and Communications Specialist will review gift acknowledgement/tax receipt letter six months after implementation of new policy and each year thereafter on October 1
 - Historic copies will be stored on the Shared Drive
- Other Departments Involved:
- Operations
 - Partners/Pipeline
 - Team leads
- Best Practice Approval Process:
- To be vetted through Pipeline Department for PIH language and process approval – completed 11/29/2010
 - To be approved by SHF executive leadership – completed 12/14/2010
 - To be approved by SHF Stewardship Team – completed 12/14/2010
 - To be vetted through Operations for logistics and feasibility – completed 12/21/2010
 - To be vetted through Sharp Legal for tax receipt fine print – completed 2/15/2011
- Supporting Documents:
- Tax Receipt with All Potential Merges
 - Tax Receipt for special gifts (stocks, gift-in-kinds, events)

As you are aware, Frostival will benefit the Intensive Care Unit at Texas Health HEB. As the premier provider of intensive care services in Northeast Tarrant County, Texas Health HEB offers the best in physicians, nursing staff and equipment to treat our most critical patients. We sincerely thank you for your support so that we may embark on a $4 million renovation project to modernize the patient rooms, nursing station and the common areas, including the family waiting area. Your sponsorship of Frostival will ensure that patients will continue to receive exceptional care at Texas Health HEB.

Dear «Salutation»:

Thank you for your gift of «Amount» to «Fund_description_1». Your support of The XX School and the 2010/11 XX Annual Fund will have an immediate impact on the education of our students.

As a new donor to the School please know that we greatly appreciate your investment in XX. Collectively, your generosity furthers our mission of ensuring that we build a generation of <School's Tagline>

At XX, our educators never stand still. Our faculty constantly reflect on how the girls learn, conduct research and participate in professional development, and then adapt the way they teach to ensure 100 per cent of the class is engaged in the learning process. It requires constant review and innovation. We must have the flexibility to respond to new needs as they arise, and ultimately, advance our students' learning experiences.

Support for the XX Annual Fund provides this flexibility. Each and every gift we receive truly makes a difference to the life of the School. It is evident in the small things – like the purchase of new cameras for our photography students – and in the larger things, like the 40 girls who currently receive financial assistance and whose dreams of attending XX were realized thanks to our community's generosity. Regardless of the area of support, my depth of gratitude to our donors remains the same.

Enclosed please find your charitable tax receipt and a brochure on Corporate Matching Gifts. Please read over the brochure to see if your gift qualifies for a match – this is a fantastic way to double your support of XX.

If you have any questions about your gift or recognition, please contact XX, Director of Annual Giving at XX ext. XX or at XX@XX.

On behalf of our faculty and, most importantly, our students, thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

XX

Dear

I want to thank you for your generous gift to [REDACTED], which you designated for use in the Department of [REDACTED]. Your contribution to the [REDACTED].

As the department and [REDACTED] come out of our recent budgetary challenges, I am pleased to be able to tell you that [REDACTED] appears to have weathered the economic storm in good shape. While we have made some changes in response to cuts in budgets, we have used this opportunity to restructure ourselves to more effectively meet our students' needs. We have found more efficient ways to deliver our educational product, we have streamlined and enhanced our administrative processes, and we have trimmed peripheral activities in order to ensure that the excellence of our core mission is maintained. We believe that the department is as strong as ever, despite these challenges.

During this period of adjustment, we have continued to see many successes and accomplishments, which you can view in our online newsletter at [REDACTED]. One striking indication of the continued excellence of the department is seen in the most recent Senior Survey. The class of 2010, the first to fully participate in our new undergraduate curriculum, indicated a level of enthusiasm for their experiences in the department that is the best in the past 10 years (which is as far back as I looked!). While we will continue to fine-tune our curriculum, this reinforcement is very gratifying. At the graduate level, we continue to see incredible applicants, and a remarkable acceptance rate, indicating that students still see us as "the place to be".

The amazing level of support from alumni since the onset of the national economic crisis has been both heartening and inspiring. So many friends of the department, such as you, have affirmed their continuing support in spite of obvious challenges to individuals as well as institutions. For this, we are extremely grateful. Your continued support, both in intellectual and financial terms, has been instrumental in helping us to weather these stormy times, and to push forward in new directions.

On behalf of the students and faculty of the department, thank you very much!

Yours truly,

Dear Name,

Thank you for believing in [organization] and our students! Your generous gift of $<amount> to the <scholarship name> is truly appreciated.

As you know, providing funding for need-based tuition assistance remains a top priority and a significant need at [organization]. This year alone, more than one million dollars in financial aid has been awarded. Jessica is one of the 251 students who is able to attend [organization] due in part to financial aid.

“Thank you for making a seemingly impossible high school experience a reality for me. My family has little to no income, five children and no father. [Org] is the best school a girl in [State] can attend. You are giving me not only one opportunity, but through this opportunity the potential to grow and change and improve in countless ways, as a young woman, a Christian, a scholar, friend, leader, servant and as a citizen of the world in general.” – Jessica, Class of 2012

Thank you for partnering with [organization] to perpetuate a mission that celebrates the potential of young women by providing for their intellectual, spiritual, physical and emotional development.

Dear Mr. Bull:

Thank you for your recent gift to the Dean's Innovation Fund in the School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences at the University at Buffalo. I am delighted to welcome you as a member of the James Platt White Society, our giving society for donors who give gifts of $1000 or more during the academic year.

Gifts from our alumni and friends are indispensable. State assistance alone is not sufficient to offer the academic opportunities our students and trainees need to achieve their goals – medical and scientific knowledge, professional skill in medical and scientific endeavors and an ethical approach to problems and their solutions. We count you as a valuable partner in our vision to make UB as a top-tier university by the year 2020.

We are deeply grateful that you chose to give to the School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences. On behalf of our students and faculty, and on behalf of those who will benefit ultimately from their medical care and scientific research, I thank you.

Dear Mr. Bull:

Please accept my sincerest thanks for your recent gift in support of the Department of Electrical Engineering. Your generosity helps UB and School of Engineering and Applied Sciences to maintain our high standard of excellence, as well as to encourage development and of collaboration within our university community that further strengthens our foundation. We are deeply grateful for the vision and the goodwill that you continue to extend on our behalf, as well as for the important role you play in shaping our future as a truly great public research university.

Now more than ever, public research universities like UB are critically needed to generate new human and intellectual capital, create educational opportunity and access, and grow the new knowledge-based economy that is vital to our future. Yet while UB's aims have never been more ambitious and the call for access to first-rate higher education has never been more urgent, the challenges that we and our fellow public universities face have never been greater. The continuing decline of public support for public higher education means that we increasingly rely on private contributions to advance our mission. Gifts like yours thus have all the more impact on our university community and are all the more meaningful.

As UB seeks to take our academic enterprise to even greater heights of excellence, the importance of the support we receive from alumni and community friends like you cannot be overstated. Your dedication to UB, and to providing opportunities that further our mission of cutting-edge scholarship, leadership, development, and public service, are truly inspiring. On behalf of the entire UB community, thank you again for your continued generosity, and for your commitment to the future of UB.

Dear

On behalf of the University of Central Florida Athletics Association, thank you for your 2010 donation to the Golden Knights Club. Because of generous gifts from donors like you, UCF Athletics is able to provide our student-athletes with the best academic and competitive assistance available.

To assist you in the preparation of your tax return, we are providing the most current information related to your 2010 calendar year gifts. Below is a summary of your contributions to the GKC from January 1 to December 31, 2010.

2011 GKC Contributions

$ 25.00	Gross contribution
$ 0.00	Less the value of your GKC benefits
$ 25.00	Eligible Contribution

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) states that the portion of your contribution exceeding the value of any benefits you receive may be eligible for a charitable contribution income tax deduction. The amount of your contribution that may qualify for this deduction is your net gift amount.

In addition, IRS regulations say that 20% of your net gift amount represents the fair market value of the right to sit in a priority section. As such, you are required to reduce the net gift amount by an additional 20% if you were eligible to receive priority seating. Please consult with your tax advisor for more information regarding these IRS regulations.

This fulfills your pledge of [Redacted]. Thank you.

On behalf of the University of Houston, I want to personally thank you for your gift of $25,000 to fund the naming of the Advanced Media Classroom in the Cullen College of Engineering. It is gifts from thoughtful donors like you - those individuals who care deeply about the University of Houston - that represent a vote of confidence in our mission.

Earlier this year, we made some exciting headway in our journey toward Tier One when the Carnegie Foundation placed the University of Houston in the top level of research universities. This designation makes the University of Houston one of only three public Carnegie-designated Tier One research universities in Texas - a significant accomplishment that we could not have achieved without the support of donors like you.

As we advance, our partnerships with the community, friends and alumni will be even more vital. Each contribution has a direct and immediate impact on the university and funds a level of excellence not supported through state assistance.

I hope you take pride in knowing that your gifts are crucial to the success of the University of Houston and our students. All of us who work and study here are grateful for your continued support.

On behalf of the University of Houston, I want to thank you for your firm's recent pledge payment to the Gerald D. Hines College of Architecture and your continued support of its programs.

The University of Houston already is having a banner year, being named a Tier One research university by the Carnegie Foundation, and reaching an enrollment record of more than 38,000 students. This past fall, the 5th Year Architecture Design Studio at UH's teamed up with Houston's Lutheran South Academy to design a theater and addition to the school's gymnasium, and in February the college hosted TEX-FAB, a network of organizations and professionals committed to the exploration of three-dimensional design and digital production of building components. It is in your investments, in part, that allow for these great initiatives to happen, and your most recent payment will ensure that the college will continue to thrive.

On behalf of those students and the University of Houston community, I thank you for your loyalty to UH and look forward to sharing more successes with you in the future.

Dear :

Let me begin by saying congratulations on completing your degree! It is a wonderful feeling of accomplishment to be sure.

I would also like to thank you for making a gift to the Senior Giving Campaign. As a member of our newest alumni class, your gift to the Annual Wesley Fund immediately sends a statement to your fellow alumni - and former classmates - that you value your educational experience.

_____ is a sophomore Liberal Studies major, as well as a student athlete, from Bronx, NY. When asked to share a few words with our donors, this is what _____ wrote:

“The neighborhood where I was raised offered many “unconstructive” opportunities. It was uncommon that a student graduated high school and attended college. Coming to Wesley was the best decision I have made. During my time as a student I have learned so much and grown as a person. By working hard and graduating from college and then returning to my community, I can show adolescents that a better life is possible. My goals are to graduate with honors and return to my neighborhood to inspire misguided youth.”

You probably know students with other stories that are just as compelling as _____’s. Your gift will impact each of them and we are grateful for your support.

Please accept this letter as a receipt for your donation of $xxx received by us on Date. This can be used as evidence of your gift in filing your yearly tax return and to confirm that no goods or services were provided to you in consideration for your contribution.

In addition, your gift to the Annual Wesley Fund will be matched by a challenge grant from the estate of _____. Dr. _____ served from many years as a trustee of Wesley. Your generosity will now be multiplied to benefit our students!

We wish you much success as you enter a new phase of your life and move forward with your career goals. We look forward to welcoming you back for Homecoming and other alumni events for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Director of the Annual Wesley Fund

Dear :

The following is how [REDACTED], a graduating Nursing major and student athlete from Denton, MD describes her transforming experience at Wesley College:

My nursing experience through Wesley has been hard work but in my last semester, I have realized it has all paid off. As a freshman I had worries that the program was going to be too difficult with a ton of homework and clinical hours. Now that I am a senior and graduation is around the corner, I have come to realize I am ready for the professional world of Nursing. The knowledge I have gained is unbelievable. The small classes give the students one-on-one time with the professors in order to get the most out of the education. Because of the accessibility of faculty always being there to answers questions and to give us guidance, my Wesley Nursing experience has been a success. I hope to help change the lives of others in the same way Wesley's Nursing program has enriched mine.

For nearly 250 Wesley students like [REDACTED], May 7, 2011 is a date they will never forget. Their hard work coupled with the generous support of donors like you make college graduation a reality.

On behalf of Wesley College students, I would like to express my thanks for your recent contribution. Your generous expression of support for higher education at Wesley truly makes a difference in the lives of students.

Please accept this letter as a receipt for your donation of $xxx for the x fund received by us on Date. This can be used as evidence of your gift in filing your yearly tax return and to confirm that no goods or services were provided to you in consideration for your contribution.

Dear Donor Name & Donor Spouse,

On behalf of the entire Western Oregon University community, I thank you for your recent gift. Your donation of $20.00 was processed on March 09, 2011. This gift will support the Annual Fund.

I often interview students to learn more about their experiences at WOU. When I ask them why they decided to attend WOU, there are countless personal and professional reasons, but a few reasons are mentioned more often than others. For example, students come to WOU and stay here because the campus is beautiful and when they walk down Monmouth Avenue, people know who they are. And not only do they see others just like them, they see faces representing a campus in terms of ethnicity, state of origin, background, and ability. Students also mention that they are happy to join classes that are small and taught by professors, not teaching assistants. And students and families find that, not only is a WOU education top-notch, it is reasonably priced too, as compared to other institutions.

Students understand that it is because of donors that WOU is one of the best mid-sized, public universities on the West Coast. Thank you for giving students a beautiful campus, small classes, and a university full of actively engaged students, like our recent Fulbright Scholar, Erin Huggins, as well as nationally recognized athletes such as Sara Tucholsky and Kevin Boss.

Your generosity means so much to this community. Thank you!

Dear Donor Name & Donor Spouse,

Thank you for continuing your support of Western Oregon University through your recent gift. Your donation of $25.00 was processed on July 08, 2010. This gift will support the Annual Fund.

At Western Oregon University, our students wear many hats during the course of the day. Recently, a student, now alumna, Yendi, said, "For being such a small school, there are so many opportunities [in addition to] academics." As a result, our students play many roles in the life of campus, all with the intent of enriching their educational experience and further making them stronger candidates to join the workforce.

At WOU, students are able to wear as many hats as they choose, be it Chemist, Poet and Volleyball player, or ASL Major, Business Minor and Class President. WOU is a place that values the whole student experience, where professors know the names of students and encourage a well-rounded collegiate experience.

On behalf of the entire WOU community, I thank you for adding "Continuing Supporter" to the plethora of hats that you wear on a daily basis.

Dear Donor Name & Donor Spouse,

On behalf of the entire Western Oregon University community, I thank you for your recent gift. Your donation of $500.00 was processed on March 09, 2011. This gift will support the Football Scholarship Fund.

Specifically, your year-end gift will help ensure: 1) each student-athlete becomes the absolute best they can be during their time at WOU through proper strength and conditioning development, 2) a level playing field when it comes to scholarship funding, and 3) we never lose the next All-American due to a lack of recruiting funds to get them to campus.

Thank you again for your support of Western Oregon Athletics, and for answering the call to support these remarkable student-athletes. We are excited about the future of our programs and that you are a part of providing "each student-athlete with a championship experience."

We are closer than you might think to our goal of consistently competing for championships. Encourage a friend to consider a year-end gift to support Western Oregon University student-athletes, and put us that much closer! Go Wolves!

Dear Donor Name & Donor Spouse,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to membership in the Western Oregon University President's Club. You have joined an important group of alumni and friends who give each year between $1,000 and $2,499 in support of students and programs at WOU. Your donation of $1,000.00 was processed on March 09, 2011. This gift will support the Dean of Education Fund and will be used for Worlds of Words grant.

Like most President's Club members, you expect nothing in return for your generosity other than the satisfaction of knowing you have impacted the life of a student. Nevertheless, there are tangible benefits to membership in the President's Club. Not only do you receive invitations to special events and receptions, you receive recognition in our annual Honor Roll of Donors. Finally, you receive a special invitation to a recognition event for President's Club and Circle members. Please save the date for our President's Club dinner which will be held on Saturday, May 21, 2011 at the beautiful Willamette Valley Vineyards. More information will arrive in the spring. I hope you will be able to attend this popular event.

While you may not need any additional reasons for supporting WOU students, we are happy to share our 'case for support' brochure with you. Please share with others who may share in your excitement for WOU and encourage them to return the pledge form, thereby joining you as a President's Club member.

As a President's Club member, your gift is a concrete expression of your engagement with Western Oregon University today and your concern for the university's future. Your generosity means a great deal to us.

Sincerely,

Dear Donor Name & Donor Spouse,

On behalf of the entire Western Oregon University community, thank you for renewing your support for WOU students. By making a gift, you continue to be a part of the nearly four thousand people who consider WOU a philanthropic priority. Your donation of $100.00 was processed on March 09, 2011. This gift will support the Annual Fund.

Donors contribute hundreds of thousands of dollars every year to WOU. Whether a donor gives with a gift-in-kind, a gift to the Annual Fund, scholarships, athletics, our new and fast-growing nursing program, or creative arts, the ways to give are as diverse as our student body. At the end of the day however, people give to support Western's incredible students who go on to build a stronger Oregon and beyond.

For many of our loyal donors, there is a desire to do more than make a financial contribution. Every day, I get calls from donors asking what more they can do for WOU. After giving the laundry list of activities (attached), I tell them that a simple next step they can take to support students is to spread the word about the quality of a WOU education and help grow the community of supporters.

Thank you for being the backbone on which to build a strong future for our students.

Dear XXX,

I hope this spring finds you and your family doing well, and I'm happy to have this opportunity to thank you for your recent gift of $200 in support of the XXX Memorial Fund for Undergraduate Programs. The Gallery's Education Department has had another year of high energy and great excitement with its many undergraduate programs, and the Gallery Guides and other undergraduates who are part of our community will have their "Artful End" celebration this Thursday. So many wonderful students become involved in different areas of our teaching museum every year, and I'm heartened that their experience at the Gallery has encouraged many of them to continue onto careers in the visual arts or to become art enthusiasts and collectors.

It was a pleasure to see your mother and Jay looking very healthy and happy at our recent event with historian David McCullough. He delivered an amazing lecture on April 10 in conjunction with the special installation of Samuel F. B. Morse's The Gallery of the Louvre, a very interesting painting by that great artist and inventor that was first shown in New Haven upon its arrival in America from Paris in 1833 (it is now here on loan from the Terra Foundation and goes next to the National Gallery of Art). David's highly-anticipated new book, The Greater Journey, is about the American intellectuals and creative spirits of the nineteenth century who found inspiration and comradeship in the Paris of that day (from 1830–1900). Keep your eyes peeled for it, as it will be a great read.

Thank you again, and best wishes to you, Doug, and Joshua as we head into a most welcome warm-weather season.

Dear XXX,

After having had the opportunity to enjoy your company at our recent memorable Governing Board meeting and celebration with David McCullough, I'm delighted to also thank you for your very generous $10,000 contribution in support of the Swartwout and Street Hall renovation project, in particular as you have now contributed $18,000 beyond your initial pledge for this endeavor. As you well know, these funds are essential and most welcome as we move toward the completion and reinstallation of these historic structures.

Every time that the Gallery's Governing Board meets, I am more grateful than ever for this remarkable group of generous souls who have a passion both for Yale and for its teaching museum. While we have accomplished much and have much to be proud of, with your help, we are just at the brink of a new and truly marvelous era.

Thank you again, and I look forward to our meeting on May 18.

Dear Donor,

Thank you for your support of the Ira A. Fulton Schools of Engineering and our students. Your generous investment ensures our ability to provide the programs and experiences needed to build the engineers of the future.

There is a quote by the aerospace engineer Theodore von Kármán posted in our lobby that I'd like to share because it sums up the educational and research environment at Fulton Schools: Scientists study the world as it is; engineers create the world that has never been.

Recently, seven teams led by students in the Fulton Schools were named winners in Arizona State University's 2011 Innovation Challenge. Over 150 teams applied for this annual competition; 30 were selected as finalists and 16 have been awarded grants to pursue their entrepreneurial endeavors.

Combining entrepreneurial spirit and engineering ingenuity, our teams are pursuing solutions for personalized medicine, diabetes care, medical clinics in developing countries, and sustainable power through solar and wind technology. These are real solutions for real problems.

Our students see what can be. They want to use their tremendous talents to make a difference in our society. Your investments to the Ira A. Fulton Schools of Engineering Foundation Gifts and Grants Fund help us attract, inspire, retain and enable great students to pursue their dreams, and help us in our pursuit of the discoveries, innovations and solutions to society's challenges. Again, thank you.

ATHLETICS:

Beside every student-athlete at Augustana College there is someone cheering them on, pushing them to succeed on the field of competition, and in the classroom. Every year, hundreds of talented young men and women team up with alumni and friends like you to work towards making their Viking season a winning one.

It is my pleasure to thank you for your gift to The Tribe of Vikings. Your thoughtful support will help improve key facilities, retain talented coaching staff, and shape the life of student-athletes for many years to come.

Again, thank you for helping to ensure that Augustana athletics continue to stand for championship quality. Go Vikings!

GENERAL

Thank you for your recent gift to Augustana College. Your generosity directly impacts our students and stands in tribute to the college's commitment to excellence in liberal arts and sciences education.

Over the course of this year, I watched from my window as Old Main began its long-awaited transformation into a modern center for teaching and learning. As the exterior renovation nears completion and we turn our attention to the interior spaces, I look with anticipation to the enhanced teaching, mentoring, research and collaboration that will take place within its revitalized classrooms and corridors. In much the same way we strive for transformation in our students, inside and out, as we prepare them for lives of leadership and service.

The college's students will go on to make a difference, just as you have here at Augustana. Thank you for your support of the mission and vision of the college.

Dear Grandparents,

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for attending Brethren Christian's Grandparents Day last week. The students, faculty and staff enjoyed having you spend the morning with us. From the many heartwarming comments I have received, it seems that you, too, had a great morning!

Grandparents have such an important role in the lives of their grandchildren. I hope that you will never underestimate the influence you have. Studies show that young people are greatly influenced by the standards of behavior taught in their family - even when it seems like they aren't listening. Young people today are exposed to so much information that does not conform to Biblical values. I would like to encourage you to continue to be actively involved in the lives of these precious young people. Pray for them, and for their parents.

Brethren Christian has been ministering to Christian families for 63 years now. June 2008, Brethren Christian High School graduated the first students whose grandparents (and parents) had also graduated from Brethren! What a tremendous legacy.

The family is the foundation of God's design for our human societies. At BC, we embrace the entire family - and that includes grandparents! I hope that we will see you often at plays, concerts or cheering on your favorite Warrior athlete. I am including a calendar of upcoming events that you might enjoy attending.

Looking forward to seeing you again soon,

xxxx

The generosity of our alumni, faculty, staff, and friends allows us to continue to improve and grow our programs, expand our students' opportunities, and confirm our future as a top tier business school. The support of these groups over the last two years is unprecedented in the history of our school. For the second year in a row, we established new records for the number of donors to and the amount of dollars committed to the School of Business Annual Fund.

Finally, I would like to offer my congratulations on your membership in the XXXXX Society. In honor of the support that you have given to the School, we will be honoring you by displaying your name on the donor board that is prominently located within the building. Thank you for your generosity and confidence in the School of Business.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Doe:

Thank you for your recent gift to Colby. You have once again demonstrated your commitment to Colby students. Your gift places you in the President's Club of the President's Leadership Society and makes a statement about the value of a Colby education.

Collectively, President's Leadership Society members help to achieve the College's larger goals: keeping Colby accessible, building a stronger faculty, and ensuring the relevance of a Colby education in today's world. Your support is also critical to the financial health of the College. It would take an additional $92,000,000 in endowment to provide financial support equivalent to that which you and other members of the President's Leadership Society provide in annual contributions.

Your vision and support ensure that Colby will continue to open doors to a vast range of possibilities for bright young men and women.

I look forward to seeing you on campus or at an event in your area. Again, many thanks.

Thank you for your generous support for XXX. [If appropriate, insert detail about the individual's personal interest or motivation.] Your gift is absolutely essential to the university, and to the success of XXX Campaign.

Your investment in XXX is a wise one. The university's 47-year record of a balanced budget has positioned us well for an economic reality that will test our creativity as well as our discipline. Despite slowed endowment income and measured tuition growth, we must continue to innovate. If we are to leverage new technologies in teaching and research, we will have to determine which things we do that are no longer critical.

As president of this great institution, I look forward to engaging you and others in the serious discussion about what we value most: providing our faculty and students with the resources they need, preparing our undergraduates for success in the international 21st century, and — first and foremost — making a XXX education accessible to all students who are capable of and interested in the intense level of engagement that we offer.

Thank you again for your support. With your help, XXX truly can become the nation's leading liberal arts university.

Dear «default_sal»:

Thank you for your gift in support of the James T. Laney School of Graduate Studies.

As a contributor to graduate education, you know just how important our work is – to maintaining the innovation and progress needed for a strong economy, to developing the expertise required to address the complex issues facing our society, to preventing and curing diseases and conditions that threaten the quality of many lives, and to deepening our understanding of humanity in ourselves and in others.

At Emory, we are proud to promote graduate education that directly engages important issues of great public concern. Our new Master's in Development Practice Program trains a new generation of development professionals who will work nationally and internationally. Our Translational Science certificate teaches laboratory scientists about translating their research into treatments that will benefit human health. Our Digital Scholarship and Media Studies helps scholars understand and employ new digital media to greatest effect.

Your support is central to these important endeavors. It helps us provide opportunities and support projects that allow our graduate students and their mentors to come together in a vibrant intellectual community, held together by commitments to the highest standards of intellectual rigor. It also supports our efforts to continue Emory University's tradition of cultivating the passion and the courage needed to take on the demanding and controversial problems that are at the center of promoting the public and global good.

We are grateful for your gift, and for the confidence in our work reflected in your decision to give to the Laney Graduate School. With heart and mind, we thank you.

This Spring Term, I am spending several hours a week back in the Harkness classroom, teaching math to preps. It's a joy to witness their energy as they rise to new challenges and hone the habits of mind that will serve them throughout their lives.

A great reward of being principal is to see students seizing so many opportunities to shape their futures. Recently, our 60-member Concert Choir and Chamber Orchestra returned from Québec, where they performed for hundreds of listeners in three venues. Another group led technology and social media teach-ins for faculty and staff.

I am writing to express my personal appreciation for your recent gift to the Georgia Southern University Foundation. Now, more than ever, the support of friends and alumni like you helps us to continue our tradition of providing an outstanding education to our students.

Georgia Southern is an amazing place at an exceptional time in its history. Dear Mr. and Mrs. Donor,

“We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.”
-Winston Churchill

You have done something remarkable. You have extended your generosity to others – even when you knew they would probably never know it. One of the greatest joys in life comes from knowing that you impacted the life of someone else positively.

I hope you see how valued your recent gift of $250.00 to the HPER Annual Giving Fund is to the faculty, staff, and students within the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation here at Indiana University. With this gift you are helping to ensure brighter futures for many.

Our growing student body comes with a need for increased building space. I am pleased to report that the HPER Courtyard expansion project to add additional offices, a student career center, and a 178 person auditorium will be complete by the end of the summer. And at the exciting prospect of becoming a School of Public Health, we have also had the opportunity to add new programs and majors, further strengthening our student’s experiences and education through HPER. None of this would be possible without the generosity of our alumni and friends like you and for that, I give you my many thanks.

Sincerely,

Mo Torabi, PhD, MPH, FAAHB

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Donor,

*The foundation of every state is the education of its youth.”
-Diogenes Laertius*

The wise words from this ancient Greek philosopher continue to be true today. Thank you for supporting the education of our students within the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Your recent gift of $25.00 to the HPER Annual Giving Fund is truly appreciated. With your investment, you belong to a group of the many other committed and motivated people who have so generously invested in the future of HPER, and the future of our students.

It is generosity like yours that sustains our School and provides resources to prepare our faculty and students to excel in their endeavors. We have much to be excited about as we continue to evolve as a School within the Indiana University system: our student body continues to grow as well as our alumni base; we have added additional programs and majors; and we are increasing the square footage of space available for our faculty and staff. Each of these initiatives is made possible through the generosity of our alumni and friends.

Your gift is a reflection of your support for the School of HPER. I appreciate your affirmation of your belief in our mission of preventing disease, promoting wellness, and improving quality of life and wish you the best for 2011.

Sincerely,

Mo Torabi, PhD, MPH, FAAHB

Your generosity, loyalty and the support from you and so many other parents, faculty and staff, alumni and friends insure that wishes really do come true at The John Cooper School! This letter is to gratefully acknowledge our receipt and recording of your donation of «Amount» to the 2010-11 Annual Fund First “wish” campaign which was received on «Gift_date».

As an Alumnus or parent(s) of a John Cooper School Alumnus, you are personally familiar with the distinctive learning opportunities provided by this campus. Since we opened our doors in 1926, the Brooklyn Campus has served our ever-changing community by providing access to men and women of diverse ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds. Today, students from nearly every race and culture in the world, many of whom are the first in their family to attend college, come to the Brooklyn Campus seeking the educational, intellectual and artistic opportunities necessary to achieve professional success. For the majority of these students, financing their education is the largest obstacle to realizing that success. They are dependent on the support of men and women they have never met, but to whom they owe a debt of gratitude.

Thank you for helping our students realize the dream of a higher education.

Sincerely,

Dear SALUTATION,

I hope this new year finds you and your loved ones well.

I am writing today to thank you for your financial contribution during the 2010 calendar year. As Vice President for Institutional Advancement, the best part of my job is being able to say “thank you” to Loras College’s loyal contributors.

However, I feel that the optimal way to thank you for your support is by sharing the deep appreciation our students have for your gift to Loras:

“Financial assistance made the difference for my college decision, and I am 100% sure that Loras is where I am supposed to be.” Corrine Abele, 2014

“I chose Loras, because I wanted to be at a school that was community-like and where I could get one-on-one treatment with teachers.” Jack Metz, 2013

“I really enjoy being a part of this Duhawk community. The people here are truly genuine, and it shows that Loras has been this way for years.” Joshua Porter, 2012

“In the spring, I will be the first person from my family to graduate college. Your generosity has helped make this possible.” Vanessa Arnold, 2011

Please know that your benevolence is forever changing the lives of these and many other young people. Thank you again for all you do for Loras College and best wishes for a healthy and happy 2011.

Sincerely,

Pam Gerard
Vice President for Institutional Advancement

Dear John,

Thank you for your generous gift of $1,000 to Loyola University Maryland's Annual Fund, designated to the Marketing Department. Your donation will enable us to sustain the momentum that is elevating Loyola's prestige, bringing us national recognition, and perpetuating our reputation as an institution that produces students who are intellectually agile, spiritually strong, and prepared for the challenges confronting our nation and the world.

Your generosity during this time of economic uncertainty is especially laudable. It points to your embrace of the Jesuit principle of a life for others. More generally, it points to your dedication to the fundamental ideals at the heart of our heritage. Your donation ensures that those ideals will continue to guide us. Your generosity will enable us to provide a new generation of students with both the intellectual stimulation and the spiritual nourishment that will prepare them to be leaders. In a very real sense, you are helping to shape the future.

For your gift to Loyola — for your gift to the future leaders now in our classrooms — we are deeply grateful. On behalf of our university and on behalf of these future leaders, please accept my heartfelt thanks.

Sincerely,

Dear Salutation,

Thank you for your gift to Maryland Institute College of Art! We truly appreciate your investment and want you to know that among MICA's many wonderful donors, you are playing an especially significant role by choosing to make an unrestricted gift.

Unrestricted gifts, like yours, are used for the College's greatest needs, providing the means each year to sustain and expand academic programs, enhance student life, support faculty development, develop exhibitions and community programs, and provide financial aid. More than 65% of all students receive financial aid, and a MICA education would not be possible for many deserving students without the annual support of thousands of alumni, parents, faculty, staff, foundations, corporations, and other community friends.

You are giving MICA the flexibility to take on new opportunities, strengthen programs, and meet unexpected financial needs. On behalf of the MICA community, thanks again for your support. We are grateful for your investment and glad to have you in the MICA family!

Dear «salutation»,

On behalf of the students, faculty and staff, I would like to express my gratitude for the support you have shown through your recent donation of $«amount» to the «alloc_long_desc». Your generosity helps us maintain unrivalled academic standards, and advances our international reputation for research and innovation.

I am enormously proud of the Faculty of Education's unique leadership position. Setting us apart from other institutions is our passion for transdisciplinary research - a holistic approach to investigating complex issues that have multiple causes and require thinking across many disciplines. The impact of our discoveries can be seen and felt in so many areas, from cyber-bullying, to learning disabilities to meeting the critical challenge of motivating our kids to remain in school. The Faculty is also ideally positioned to spearhead new initiatives aimed at optimizing health and physical activity practices among young people and adults, promoting healthy aging among older Canadians and enhancing the quality of life for those with chronic disease.

Our world-class academic programs are transforming how we prepare tomorrow's teaching professionals and inspiring the next generation of educators, researchers, policy makers and humanitarians. Finally, the Faculty of Education is proud to be a leader at the forefront of technological change: researchers in our School of Information Studies are discovering new ways to access, manage and integrate digital records for hospitals and corporations, rethinking enterprise content management systems to enhance organizational learning, and pioneering intelligent tutoring systems.

Once again, I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you for contributing to our bright future.

Yours sincerely,

On behalf of the Faculty of Science and its students, I wish to personally thank you for your recent donation to McGill University.

I am very pleased that in your philanthropic efforts you have chosen to support the {insert allocation name here} Faculty of Science. Within the Faculty, leadership gifts such as yours go a long way in supporting our students in their academic pursuits.

Your generous contribution will assist in funding such projects as students' scholarships, convocation awards, and field work among other projects within the Faculty. Once again, thank you very much for your generous support.

Scholarship

For more than a century, NIU has provided students with a strong, solid, well-rounded academic experience; confidence in their preparation for competitive and challenging careers; and pride in the privilege of carrying on Northern's tradition of excellence. This ambitious mission is made possible only through the generosity of people like you.

It is my pleasure to thank you for your support of the «acctname». The gift of a scholarship can open up entire worlds to a student. Your gift also serves to affirm the hard work and commitment NIU's scholars have devoted in order to earn this honor.

Again, thank you for the transformational opportunities you are providing NIU's students. In spite of the growing challenges facing students and families, together we can make the dream of a college education a reality.

Staff

As NIU continues to build upon over a century of excellence, I take great pride in knowing that our students and faculty are able to accomplish extraordinary things and contribute to the betterment of our world, all thanks to the remarkable opportunities offered by gifts like yours.

On behalf of the students, faculty and staff who will benefit, please accept my appreciation for your recent gift to the <fund name>. Your commitment and generosity serve as powerful investments in NIU's continued success.

The rewards of your support are seen through the eyes of those who benefit from the intellectual curiosity of our students, the achievements of our athletes, the discoveries of our researchers and the inspiration of our faculty and staff. Again, thank you for the many ways you strive to advance Northern Illinois University.

Athletics

Each year, NIU's student-athletes commit hours of training and practice toward their chosen sport, while constantly striving to uphold the standards of academic excellence NIU demands.

For the past eleven semesters, our student-athletes have continued to improve their academic success by exceeding a 3.0 cumulative GPA. This feat could not be accomplished without the help of generous alumni and friends like you. On behalf of the students and programs that will benefit, thank you for your gift to support the Huskie Athletic Fund.

Your continued support of our many young men and women is an investment in their successes...in the classroom, on the fields of competition, and in life.

Capital Projects

The Jeffrey and Kimberly Yordon Center continues to be hailed as one of the best facilities in the country. This past semester has only cemented the Yordon Center as one of the best after our Huskie student athletes continued a GPA average of 3.0 for the 11th consecutive semester. It is not an easy task managing a Division I schedule and a full time course load but these students helped maintain the standard of excellence in academics the university has set forth.

On behalf of the Northern community as well as all the student athletes, coaches, trainers and parents, I thank you for your gift and continued support of the Jeffrey and Kimberly Yordon Center. The facility is successful because of generous donors like you who believe in the success of our Huskie student athletes as well as the academic success at NIU.

The support you give to the facility lets us continue to develop our Huskie athletes as leaders both on and off the field.

GENERAL

On behalf of the students and faculty who will benefit, I thank you for your gift to the «acctname». Your gift will help NIU's students prepare for careers as creators, performers, teachers and scholars, while also enriching the cultural life on campus and throughout the surrounding communities.

While the teaching methods, the curriculum, and certainly the campus have changed, Northern's fundamental commitment to students furthering their education has not. Your generosity is an investment in this commitment and will provide our students the opportunities to pursue their dreams and reach their highest potential.

Again, thank you for your thoughtful generosity and ongoing support of Northern Illinois University.

Annual Fund

Students, alumni and friends have a great sense of pride in NIU, and for good reason. Our athletic programs are highly competitive, the fine arts programs continue to produce impressive works, faculty research projects are gaining well earned publicity, and academic programs have been nationally acclaimed. Big things are happening and it's because of the generosity of alumni and friends like you.

It is a pleasure to thank you for your gift to the Northern Fund. Private gifts, like yours, help provide the vitally important resources necessary for the university to sustain the strength of our existing programs and services and provide the best educational opportunities to the next generation of leaders.

Again, thank you. Your investment will help advance, not only NIU's students, faculty and programs, but also the communities they serve.

Capital Projects

Surrounded by beautiful 80 year old pines and oaks, the Barsema Alumni and Visitor Center welcomes thousands of visitors every year. Students interested in attending NIU enjoy this breathtaking building and know that they are home. When alumni return to visit their alma mater they stop by this building to rekindle old friendships and remember their wonderful memories from their days at NIU.

This architectural dream could not have been possible without the help of our friends and alumni like you. I thank you for your pledge payment to the Barsema Alumni and Visitor Center. Your support has helped reunite old friends and encourage students to attend NIU.

BEQUEST

The great American philosopher, William James, once wrote, "The best use of life is to invest it in something which will outlast life."

For more than a century, NIU has been providing students with the tools and opportunities to reach their full potential as local, national and global leaders of the future. However, we could not continue to advance this mission without the vision and generosity of alumni and friends like you.

Please accept my thanks for including Northern Illinois University in your estate plans. With this special gift, you will build upon a strong legacy of academic exploration, research, teaching and service. In addition, you will play a key role in our ability to provide high quality education to those who desire, seek and need it.

Again, thank you. Your commitment will serve as a lasting tribute to the ideals of student enrichment and future potential.

Gifts to Foundation

The highest priority of the NIU Foundation is to create life-changing opportunities for our dedicated students and faculty. In order for us to create these opportunities we need the support, expertise and commitment of alumni and friends like you.

It is a pleasure to thank you for your gift to support the operations of the NIU Foundation. Your gift allows us to focus on securing the resources necessary to build smarter classrooms, attract and retain world-class faculty, and draw the highest caliber students to NIU.

Again, thank you. Together, we are helping build a stronger NIU.

Libraries

NIU's libraries serve as vital resources for our students and faculty, in addition to contributing to the advancement of scholarship, both locally and globally. Our university libraries are crucial to NIU's ability to provide students, faculty and staff with the academic tools necessary to encourage life-long learning.

It is a pleasure to thank you for your gift to support the Northern Illinois University Libraries. Your generosity allows us to provide outstanding research and academic services so fundamental to the Libraries' mission as well as NIU's teaching and learning environment.

Again, thank you. Your commitment is truly enhancing the level of academic excellence at Northern Illinois University.

Professorship

A professorship is one of the most significant ways that Northern Illinois University can honor its highly esteemed teachers and researchers. Professorships play an important factor in the retention of top faculty. In addition, these professorships provide our deans, and department heads with an extraordinary advantage when competing with peer institutions to attract leading scholars to NIU.

On behalf of the students and faculty who will benefit, thank you for your gift to support the «acctname». Your gift allows Northern to continue to recognize those educators of exceptional ability and preserves NIU's tradition of academic excellence.

Again, thank you for the tremendous impact your generosity is having on the quality of teaching, research, and service across NIU.

Dean's Discretionary Fund

On behalf of the students and faculty who will benefit, thank you for your gift to the «acctname». This support will allow the College to recruit the nation's top faculty, attract leading student scholars, and create a climate for innovative research and collaborations.

Tuition alone is not enough to cover the real cost of a college education or to build a strong foundation for our future endeavors. Your investment in the Dean's Discretionary Fund will provide the flexible funding the College needs to implement innovative ideas, meet its highest priority needs, respond quickly to emerging opportunities, and invest in areas of the highest potential.

Again, thank you for the tremendous impact your generosity is having on the quality of teaching, research, and service across NIU

I am grateful to you for your leadership and active participation as a PCC Foundation Board member. Our collective efforts directly impact and improve hundreds of students' lives and build careers, which ultimately strengthen our community. Your service and thoughtful philanthropy come during a time when it's truly needed the most, as PCC's enrollment has increased nine straight terms and we've received over 30,000 requests for financial aid this school year alone. The work of the PCC Foundation is responding to the immediate needs of our students and programs, while also looking ahead to the future, including a potential comprehensive campaign.

I look forward to our work together this year. Thank you for the many ways that you are supporting the College and the Foundation!

Sincerely,

Preston Pulliams

Dear ,

Thank you for your recent support of Portsmouth Abbey School through the Annual Fund. Your gift to the Annual Fund strengthens Portsmouth Abbey by providing for financial aid, faculty salaries, classroom resources, athletic and artistic endeavors, and campus upkeep. When fully funded, the Annual Fund provides eight percent of the School's operating budget, affording the appropriate resources for our teachers, coaches, monks and staff to shape the lives of our students.

By supporting Portsmouth you are making a statement about your commitment to the School, and for that we are most grateful. The students and faculty reap the benefits of your philanthropy and, through your support, the School can, with confidence, fulfill its mission of educating students in knowledge and grace. I hope we will have the opportunity to welcome you to campus for a visit during this academic year so that you can see your dollars at work. Thank you again for all that you do for the School.

Kind regards,

Polly C. Antol

Director of the Annual Fund

Dear SALUTATION,

Thank you for your continuing support of Purdue Agriculture with your generous gift to the FUND NAME. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Private support plays a tremendous role in advancing the vision and mission of the College of Agriculture and your recent gift indicates to me that we share a commitment to the success of the students, faculty and staff at Purdue. The state appropriation percentage of Purdue's annual operating budget has been steadily decreasing from 40% in 2002 to 27% for 2011. Private support is vital to advancing our University.

By putting science into practice, we are answering questions and solving problems that affect every aspect of our lives. With your help, we are able to pioneer innovative methods in addressing major challenges to our state, the country, and the world. Fighting disease, improving crops, analyzing the economy and fighting world hunger are areas where Purdue Agriculture is making an impact.

The College of Agriculture has many programs which benefit the communities in which we live but also the nation and world. Purdue Extension is at the forefront of delivering timely and relevant information and solutions to problems facing our society. Our programs help apply current research-based knowledge to explain the difficult issues, and provide new information to thousands of people every year. The Animal Disease Diagnostic Lab serves the people of Indiana by diagnosing disease in livestock, wildlife and pets. They serve everyone from veterinarians to pet owners to state officials.

The support of loyal friends and alumni like you is essential to helping us fulfill our mission of outstanding teaching, research, and outreach. Thank you for your generosity!

Sincerely,

Jay Akridge

Dear «Salutation»,

On behalf of Randolph-Macon Academy, we would like to thank you for your generous donation of «Amount» to the «Fund_description_1». Your contribution makes it possible for us to make the R-MA educational experience one of unparalleled excellence.

Dear «Salutation»,

On behalf of the entire community of Regis Jesuit High School, thank you for your donation. As a reminder, all alumni giving is directed toward the Alumni Class Scholarship Program. Your commitment of «Amount» will help provide tuition assistance to students who might not otherwise be able to attend Regis Jesuit. As always, we are committed to putting our resources to work to create an environment in which our students will distinguish themselves academically, athletically and artistically as they grow through powerful experiences of leadership, faith and service.

We have launched a ONE BOOK ONE COMMUNITY program in the school. The Soloist by Steve Lopez is our selection this first year. It is a compelling true story of a newspaper columnist who develops a life-changing relationship with Nathaniel Anthony Ayers, a man with exceptional musical talent who is also homeless and mentally ill. There are special events and activities planned throughout the school year for all members of our community, including alumni. We invite your participation in this program as well, both in reading the book and in joining us at the various events planned. You can find out more on our website, www.regisjesuit.com/library.

Our hope is that the ONE BOOK ONE COMMUNITY program will further strengthen our bonds as a community, while awakening and inspiring in all of us new pathways toward becoming Men and Women with and for Others. Please accept my sincere gratitude for your generosity and support of this mission. We hope to see you at an alumni event soon! Visit www.regisjesuit.com/alumnierevents.

Sincerely,

Paul A. Muller
Director of Alumni Relations

Academic scholarships

1. You are both well aware of the transformative nature of scholarship support, not only in terms of the recognition of hard work and good grades but perhaps more importantly, the motivation and inspiration it provides to 'go the extra mile'. This is a discipline which students take with them when they leave University and apply to their professional careers, volunteer work in their communities and other aspects of their personal lives. What a wonderful gift!

2. As you know, scholarship support is the often the foundation upon which rests the academic aspirations of many students. Because of your generosity, individuals who may not otherwise have the opportunity will receive the lasting rewards of an education at Shippensburg University: the strength of a solid, well-rounded academic experience; confidence in their preparation for competitive and challenging careers; and pride in the privilege of carrying on the university's tradition of excellence.

Our students and alumnae have unique stories to tell about their experience made possible through scholarship support. As the benefactors of Scholarship, you are now in a unique position to be part of that transformation, changing lives one by one. Thank you for your partnership in educating the next generation of leaders and for your permanent investment in University.

3. Please accept my thanks again for your gift of $XXX designated to the Scholarship. This book award is a wonderful legacy to your commitment to education and all your years of service as a faculty member at University.

As you know, the financial hurdles facing many of our students are often every bit as imposing as the academic ones. Your meaningful book award has already helped many students and will help generations more as they work towards an outstanding education and become well-rounded professionals in their future careers. The associated recognition that comes with a scholarship award is also of considerable importance. That recognition assures the student that others appreciate the hard work that has brought them academic success so far and that they have confidence that their dedication to their studies will continue. Your scholarship recipients will receive financial support and encouragement at a transitional period in their lives – which makes it all the more meaningful.

It is with deep gratitude that I thank you for your investment in your alma mater and students like. Because of your support, University will continue to produce exceptional students who will be informed and successful leaders in their professional and personal lives.

4. Both of you in your professional capacities are well aware of the transformational experience both an education and a scholarship can accomplish. I am reminded of this at every scholarship dinner and every graduation day. The students leave not only with a degree but with a future, the chance of a great career, and friendships that last a lifetime. While relieving some of the burden of tuition, scholarships are almost more important in that they provide the affirmation that hard work pays off and also the motivation to succeed. These are qualities that leaders are made of and ones which are greatly valued in all walks of life.

I look forward to the day when you meet your first recipient so you can tell them your own story behind the scholarship which will be a wonderful legacy for all the time you have spent here, first as a student, then as Director of Alumni Affairs and now as Director of Major Gifts. It epitomizes your love for the campus community and your passion for education and I'm sure is one of the most meaningful gifts Bill has even given you.

With deep gratitude for your commitment to University, I look forward to working with you for many years to come.

5. Thank you again for your recent pledge payments to the Scholarship for Graduate Students. This scholarship is tailored specifically for students pursuing advanced degrees within those two fields and it has already helped a number of students who have benefited greatly from the scholarship funds.

As you may know, scholarships will always be a priority for the Foundation as many of our students are financially needy. There is nothing more worthwhile than providing the opportunity for a student to continue their education. The generosity of our benefactors, such as you, helps make this happen. You are the enablers, the facilitators, the motivators and oftentimes the inspiration for these young people to achieve their dreams and make a difference.

Your commitment and continued support are greatly appreciated. I hope one day you will be able to attend the scholarship dinner in the spring when we celebrate our scholarship benefactors and the students so that we, and the student, can thank you in person.

6. Rebecca Lynn is the recipient of the Scholarship. We recently sent Becky and all our other scholarship students a questionnaire asking them, among other things, about their experience at . In her words, "I chose Shippensburg University and the Counseling Graduate program because the values I saw in the program seemed to align with my personal and professional goals. During my time here, I have been challenged to go deeper, think globally, contribute locally, honor professional commitments and development, and consider multicultural implications. All my professors are professional, insightful and challenging – they are also very willing to meet with me if I need extra help."

Becky is a first generation student. Her parents never had the resources to go to college. Since Becky first stepped foot in school, they encouraged her to get the best grades so she would qualify for scholarship support. They are her biggest cheerleaders. But behind the scenes, even though you don't know Becky, you too are her cheerleaders because your scholarship support has provided the affirmation that hard work pays off and has given her the motivation to succeed.

To her benefactors Becky says, "Thank you for helping me pursue my educational goals and professional development. I appreciate your desire to give back and empower the next generation of professionals." I share Becky's sentiment and add my thanks to hers for investing in today's students and the possibilities of the future.

Athletic scholarships

1. SU is very proud of its student athletes who are not only high caliber athletes but scholars as well. They have some of the highest graduation rates and competitive grade point averages compared to athletes at other institutions. Your support helps defray the costs of scholarships, equipment, travel and other essentials of a broad-based intercollegiate Division II program. It also ensures that we can continue to attract top flight athletes and give them the excellent education and real-world experience they need to become tomorrow's leaders.

Nationally syndicated columnist, George Will, once wrote that, "Sports serve society by providing vivid examples of excellence." Our student athletes strive for excellence both on the field and in the classroom. Your continued investment in athletic program will help them maintain that standard of excellence and motivate them to achieve even more.

2. As you know, a challenging educational program, combined with the opportunity to compete in intercollegiate Division II athletics, prepares our student athletes to be leaders in their careers and communities. The baseball team has always maintained a high standard of sportsmanship and competitiveness and some players have gone on to have successful careers in both the minor and major leagues as evidenced by who is now playing for the Auburn Doubledays. !"

Your support over the years of the Athletic baseball program, through the Charitable Lead Trust, has been exemplary. Scholarships enable the coaches to recruit the best players from an increasingly competitive field of high school athletes who raise the bar in terms of expectations for the team and individual players. This ensures that s baseball team goes from strength to strength and maintains its reputation for excellence.

Thank you both again for your great generosity and continued interest in our student athletes.

3. You both know first hand what a difference scholarship support makes for our student athletes. It not only motivates them to try their hardest on the mat/field/court and in the classroom but it is also recognition for everything they have done to get to this point. Through their perseverance, victories, and defeats, they learn lessons that will guide them throughout their life, long after they have graduated from University.

Your investment in the wrestling program is a wonderful endorsement of the team and your belief in the coaches and players to be significant competitors in the arena of Division II athletics. Your passion for the sport is shown through the largesse of your support for which I am always deeply grateful.

Annual Fund

XXX University prepares tomorrow's leaders by inspiring students to grow personally and professionally today. Your support of the Alumni Annual Fund is key to this transformational experience. Much needed scholarships and awards are often the portal to higher education for academically talented and deserving students. Joint undergraduate student/faculty research enhances critical thinking across the board setting the stage for graduate studies. Faculty members thrive from research opportunities and scholarly activity, applying their new knowledge to learning in the classroom. Improved technical support supplies students with the vital tools they need to stay ahead of the curve while athletic, cultural, and volunteer opportunities fulfill the mission of providing a healthy and well rounded collegiate experience for every individual student.

The impact of your generosity can be found in the words of gratitude we hear every day. From the scholarship recipient who never thought he could afford college to the student discovering the research question that will become her life's work ... your gift is truly touching lives. Thank you!

Memorial

XXX was passionate about education. She earned her undergraduate degree from XXX University, her Master's degree from XXX University and then her Ph.D. degree in Special Education from XXX University. She began her career as a special education teacher then became Director of Special Education in the East Pennsboro School District. She served as treasurer of the National Division for Learning Disabilities of the Council for Exceptional Children and was President of the Teacher Education Division of the Pennsylvania Council for Exceptional Children.

XXX's research and knowledge of subjects related to special education and learning disabilities made her a sought after lecturer and a nationally-recognized author. She was highly regarded by her peers and considered a mentor by many of the area's best teachers.

Your gift to the XXX Memorial Scholarship for Special Education Fund will help XXX University students in the special education field, an area that was so important to XX XX. The scholarship is a wonderful tribute to her life's work, the values she held, and her commitment to helping people with special needs. On behalf of all the students who will benefit from your generosity - thank you.

I'm writing to thank you again for your gift of $XXX to XXX University Foundation in memory of your son,XXX. As requested, this will be given to the Criminal Justice Department's Mock Trial Team. We are always saddened to hear of the passing of any of our alumnae but it is harder when they are young and full of promise as XXX was. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss.

2. I'm sure there were many significant experiences that defined XXX's four years at XXX University. The fact that he went onto to XXX Law School leads me to believe that his participation as a member of the Mock Trial Team might have been one of them. The students in the Criminal Justice Department prepare long and hard to compete in the national competition. Students who join Mock Trial prepare the entire case from opening statements, to introducing evidence, to mastering the rules of evidence, to making objections at trial, to conducting direct and cross examinations and finally persuading a jury through closing arguments. This is a great 'court room' experience and it is great training in mastering the art of persuasive public speaking.

Your gift, which I understand will remain anonymous, will help offset the cost of preparing students for the Mock Trial competition and their attendance at regional, and hopefully, national competitions. Thank you for helping to ensure that whatever skills and enjoyment Robbie experienced through Mock Trail will continue to be experienced by students now and in the future.

Unrestricted

During a time when public funds are becoming scarcer, support from the private sector is the catalyst which turns a good education into an exceptional one. This gift will ensure the advancement of more than just XXX University – it will enable people to advance their lives through such opportunities as scholarships, joint undergraduate student/faculty research, and faculty scholarly activity and research.

Last year, through the generosity of alumni, parents and friends, the XXX Foundation provided $3.2 million to the University in overall support; $1.2 million was designated for scholarships and awards benefiting over 700 students; $50,000 funded 77 research projects involving 124 students and 54 faculty members in the joint undergraduate student/faculty research program.

XXX University has earned the distinction of providing a world-class instruction, through a challenging, innovative, curriculum and nationally ranked programs and accreditations. Raising the bar of academic excellence is the University's mission, made possible through the generosity and commitment of people like you. Thank you!

Business and Industry

XXX University is committed to providing the finest education for our students, the best professional development opportunities for our outstanding faculty, and offering the most challenging programs throughout all disciplines. As funding from the state continues to decline, the XX Foundation relies on the generosity of friends in the professional arena, such as XXX together with alumni, friends, and families to help bridge the gap and maintain our commitment to excellence. Your contributions provide the necessary funding for scholarships, joint undergraduate student/faculty research, faculty professional development and research, advancements in technology, cultural opportunities, athletic support and other important initiatives.

The success of business and industry in this country relies on continued advancement by faculty and researchers and on well-educated students entering the workforce. The success of XXX University, in turn, relies on the investments businesses such as _____ make in our ongoing pursuit of knowledge and excellence. We are grateful that you have chosen to be our partner in this shared purpose.

Campus Campaign

Last year, through the generosity of current and retired faculty, staff and administrators, the Campus Campaign raised $XXX. This is a wonderful vote of confidence by those who give of their time and talent every day, and those whose years of service helped shape this outstanding institution.

It is my great pleasure to thank you for your recent gift or payroll deduction (insert whichever applies) of $000.00 to the XXX University Foundation designated to XXXX in response to this year's Campus Campaign. Your gift helps provide direct support for our students and faculty and will touch the life of the campus community in many significant ways.

As you may know, funds from the Campus Campaign support vitally important programs such as scholarships for talented and deserving students, challenging joint undergraduate student/faculty research, and enlightening faculty research and professional development. It also provides funding for staff development, cultural opportunities, computer and technology upgrades, resources for the XXX Library, and Raiders Athletics among other things.

Your philanthropy reaches far beyond the University. The rewards are seen through the eyes of those who benefit from the intellectual curiosity of our students, the discoveries of our researchers and creations of our entrepreneurs, the achievements of our athletes as well as the inspiration of our faculty. Because of your generosity XX will continue to produce exceptional students who will be catalysts for change in the world.

As XXX continues to attract and graduate exceptional students, taught by outstanding faculty in the best possible environment, we are confident that the Campus Campaign will be even more successful this year. Thank you again for your gift and for your personal and financial investment in the people and programs at XXX University.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. :

Words cannot begin to measure the importance of private financial support to the University of North Texas. So, to that end, we have created Recognition Societies to formally acknowledge such generosity. Enclosed please find information detailing the four societies, each named for a past university president who made an indelible mark on the university during their respective tenures. Although these past presidents experienced their own unique challenges, they all shared the common characteristics of expanding, building, and engaging others in support of the university.

Your recent generosity has qualified you as a member of The Chilton Society. Named in honor of university founder Joshua Crittenden Chilton, this society recognizes contributions from individuals that total $100,000 to $249,999. Chilton came to Denton in March of 1890, hoping to start a normal college in the area. Little did he know when he began teaching students above a hardware store on the Denton courthouse square that his determination would ultimately lead the Texas Normal College and Teacher Training Institute being chartered in 1891. And today the University of North Texas is the choice for over 36,000 students – an accomplishment beyond Joshua Chilton’s dreams!

Congratulations on becoming a member of The Chilton Society. And thank you for your history of generosity earmarked for our most important programs and projects.

Sincerely,

Dear xxxxxxx,

Spring is in the air here on campus! If you have a moment just stop by and experience the energy of the students. As I write this the quad is buzzing with conversation –seniors are excitedly discussing their college choices, art student are talking about the show that opened last night and the student film festival that is going on as well. Recent AWE veterans still have that swagger in their step as they pause to talk to the kids who just finished the FIRST Robotics completion, or those who just arrived back from their trips to China or Viet Nam. Finals and AP Exams don't dampen their exuberance. They are energized and ready to take on the world. Another year will soon culminate in graduation with this beautiful campus as a backdrop.

And next year a very lucky student will enter this special world, thanks to your recent gift of $500, representing the first installment of your $2,000 pledged gift in support of the Opportunity Fund. As you know, through your generous support we have been able to significantly increase the number of students admitted on financial aid. We are excited about the great students who will be coming to the School, several of whom are truly exceptional.

I am very grateful for your commitment to helping Athenian students achieve their fullest potential through your continuing support for families who otherwise may not have the opportunity to attend our School. Thank you again for your partnership in this important endeavor and for all that you continue to help make possible here at Athenian.

With warm regards,

Annual Fund Gift, Fall

Thank you for enhancing the excellence of Trinity College with your recent gift to the Trinity College Fund. Your generosity enables our students, faculty, and staff to reach new levels of success, and I am personally grateful for your continued support.

This fall, Trinity welcomed an extraordinarily accomplished and diverse group of incoming students. The Class of 2014 boasts the highest average SAT scores and class rank of any incoming class in the College's history. Its members come to us from 34 states, 26 countries, and a wide variety of cultural and economic backgrounds. Nearly 40 percent are receiving scholarship aid of some kind, made possible, in part, by the unprecedented growth of the Trinity College Fund in recent years. The unwavering support of alumni, parents, and friends like you helped to assemble this remarkable class. Your continued generosity will provide its members, and all Trinity students, with opportunities for the life-changing experiences that are the hallmarks of a Trinity education.

During the last academic year, annual giving at Trinity outpaced nearly every other college and university in the nation. Your leadership and support will help us capitalize on that tremendous momentum and carry the College to even greater heights. On behalf of the many students and faculty who benefit from your philanthropy, I thank you for choosing Trinity, and wish all good things for you and yours.

Annual Fund Gift, Spring

Thank you for your leadership gift to the Trinity College Fund. Our students, faculty, and staff will benefit enormously from your steadfast support, which also affirms your confidence in our endeavors.

The impact of the Cornerstone Campaign is apparent everywhere on campus this spring—in our classrooms, laboratories, and performance halls; on the playing fields; and in the College's ability to recruit the most promising students possible, regardless of financial need. Dean Larry Dow and his staff have just completed the Herculean task of selecting the Class of 2015 from among nearly 7,000 young men and women. Applications jumped an unprecedented 48% this year, tangible evidence that Trinity's national reputation and academic excellence are as revered by prospective students as they are by you and others like you, who choose to invest so generously in the College and its students. The Trinity College Fund provides financial sustenance to fuel virtually every element of our growth.

I have often said that colleges cannot stand still. Trinity is advancing on all fronts because you and other alumni, parents, and friends are committed to its success. On behalf of all those empowered by your support, I thank you once again, and wish you and yours all the best.

Parents Fund Gift

Thank you for enhancing the excellence of Trinity College with your leadership gift to the Parents Fund. Your philanthropic investment will have a tremendous impact on CHILD'S NAME and [his/her] fellow students.

The unprecedented growth of the Parents Fund in recent years is mirrored in the achievements of our students and faculty and the expansion of unique learning opportunities Trinity offers. This year, our students will study abroad in 40 different countries, volunteer in more than 25 College-sponsored community service projects, compete in 29 intercollegiate athletic teams, and perform with one of more than a dozen singing, dance, and musical ensembles, among many other unique curricular and cocurricular initiatives. In addition, your philanthropy empowers us to recruit and retain distinguished faculty members who are at the forefront of their respective fields, and preserve the intimate class sizes that allow students to forge lifelong bonds with their professors. In short, the Parents Fund supports our students at every point in their educational journey.

Your leadership also sets a shining example for your fellow parents, adding to the momentum that will carry the College to even greater levels of achievement. On behalf of the many students and faculty who benefit from your philanthropy, I thank you for choosing Trinity, and wish all good things for you and yours.

Athletics

Thank you for enhancing the excellence of Trinity College with a leadership gift to the DESIGNATION. Your support will help Coach NAME enhance the team's competitiveness and ensure a quality experience for his/her players.

A robust athletics program benefits the whole Trinity community. Student-athletes develop discipline and leadership skills through rigorous training and competition, amidst a supportive community of teammates, coaches, and faculty advisers. The achievements of our athletes provide inspiration and rallying points for all Trinity students, who also gain increased opportunities for exercise and recreation through the resources and facilities that sustain intercollegiate sports. The success of our athletics program brings the College international acclaim, affirming the reputation for excellence that ensures each new class of students surpasses the last, both in academic achievement and cultural diversity. Thus, your gift to bolster the SPORT team strengthens the foundations of Trinity College.

Your exemplary generosity adds momentum to our efforts to build support for the College's athletics program through the Cornerstone Campaign. Once again, on behalf of the many beneficiaries of your philanthropy, I thank you for being an essential part of the Bantam team.

Dear Supervisor Bust,

It is said that when the Incas wanted to tunnel through a mountain in the Peruvian city of Cuzco, they started 10,000 Incas digging from one side and 10,000 from the other....and when they met....they had their tunnel. Our mountainous project is, of course, the School of Medicine at UCR.

So, I thank you on behalf of our campus for your hard work with “the dig.” Please accept my sincere thanks for facilitating the generous gift from the Community Improvement Fund. I cannot tell you in words how much your loyal and continued interest in UCR means to us-our faculty, staff, and students. Your support is providing the solid foundation we need to build on.

With this significant gift approved by the Riverside County Board of Supervisors, UCR is able to keep our plans for the medical school on track. The level of excitement surrounding the opening of our School of Medicine is palpable. And I must add that it is downright exciting to see the ends of our mountain tunnel about to meet. As California’s first new public medical school in four decades, we are committed to serving a region with one of the state’s most severe physician shortages. We will work to address the unique health challenges of our diverse and rapidly growing population in the Inland Empire. This momentous task will begin in 2012 with our first class of medical students.

I look forward to working with you and the Riverside County Board of Supervisors in the coming years as our University takes its place among the nation’s most esteemed institutions and medical schools. For the City of Riverside and UCR, it will prove to be an exciting decade! Again I extend my heartfelt thanks to you and send my best wishes to you and your family for a joyous and fun-filled summer.

On behalf of the University of Houston, I want to thank you for your firm's recent pledge payment to the Gerald D. Hines College of Architecture and your continued support of its programs.

The University of Houston already is having a banner year, being named a Tier One research university by the Carnegie Foundation, and reaching an enrollment record of more than 38,000 students. This past fall, the 5th Year Architecture Design Studio at UH's teamed up with Houston's Lutheran South Academy to design a theater and addition to the school's gymnasium, and in February the college hosted TEX-FAB, a network of organizations and professionals committed to the exploration of three-dimensional design and digital production of building components. It is in your investments, in part, that allow for these great initiatives to happen, and your most recent payment will ensure that the college will continue to thrive.

On behalf of those students and the University of Houston community, I thank you for your loyalty to UH and look forward to sharing more successes with you in the future.

On behalf of the University of Houston, I want to personally thank you for your gift of $25,000 to fund the naming of the Advanced Media Classroom in the Cullen College of Engineering. It is gifts from thoughtful donors like you - those individuals who care deeply about the University of Houston - that represent a vote of confidence in our mission.

Earlier this year, we made some exciting headway in our journey toward Tier One when the Carnegie Foundation placed the University of Houston in the top level of research universities. This designation makes the University of Houston one of only three public Carnegie-designated Tier One research universities in Texas - a significant accomplishment that we could not have achieved without the support of donors like you.

As we advance, our partnerships with the community, friends and alumni will be even more vital. Each contribution has a direct and immediate impact on the university and funds a level of excellence not supported through state assistance.

I hope you take pride in knowing that your gifts are crucial to the success of the University of Houston and our students. All of us who work and study here are grateful for your continued support.

Dear Sue and Doug::

We missed seeing you at the annual MBA Welcoming Reception this year. Although you were unable to join us, we did want to provide you with some details on the 2010 recipient of the Sue and Doug MBA Scholarship. This year's recipient is Heather Jones.

Heather previously worked with Maritime Electric as Director of Marketing and Promotions and also as an Assistant Coordinator, Provincial Revenue Sourcing, with the 2009 Canada Games Host Society. She is currently an Account Manager with the company. Heather is very involved in the community, sitting on a number of boards such as Theatre PEI and volunteering with numerous not-for-profit organizations such as Big Brothers Big Sisters. She is also an active provincial and house league coach with the Provincial Hockey Association. Heather is pursuing her MBA to further her leadership skills and expand her knowledge of the business world. This scholarship provides welcome support for Heather as she balances work, school and community commitments.

We are including a photo of our Dean presenting the award to Heather for your information and as a memento of the occasion. Please accept our thanks, once again, for your generosity and continued support of our students through the Sue and Doug MBA Scholarship.

Dear «SALUTATION»:

Thank you for your thoughtful gift to «FUNDDNAME». Your generosity helps to advance the vital work under way at the University of Rochester. On behalf of the entire University community, let me extend my deepest gratitude.

Every day, activities across the University are making profound contributions to our community and the world. Several projects being completed this academic year mark a new era for Rochester's leadership among research universities. Among the highlights is the Clinical and Translational Science Building at the Medical Center. The first of its kind in the nation, it is designed to promote collaboration and accelerate the application of medical discoveries in areas such as neurological disorders, cancer, pediatrics, and cardiovascular disease. At the Eastman School, a new wing is dramatically expanding the internationally acclaimed School's educational facilities. The 32,000 square-foot addition will also offer new ways to engage audiences and explore how music is changing in the digital age. Rochester continues to be a national leader in breakthrough research. Over the past ten years, the University has experienced a tremendous increase in sponsored research grants. These highly competitive funds support critical work including lymphoma research and clinical trials, bioterrorism research, and the development of new green energy alternatives. Rochester also ranks as one of the top ten universities in the country for patent royalties — an extraordinary tribute to the talents of our faculty, and a key generator for new technologies, commercial products, advances in health care, and new companies and jobs.

Working together, we will continue to expand the University's impact on and service to the world. Thank you for your partnership during this transformational moment in our history.

(Additional Gift — we have several variations, depending on level, type, and number of gifts; BOT letters are personalized on an individual basis. This letter is an example of a letter for a repeat gift, but not at the level of BOT or leadership gift)

Thank you for your generous gift to the <<FUNDDNAME>>. Your steadfast support of the University of Rochester is a strategic investment that helps to make a strong institution even stronger. Dear Mr. and Mrs. Smith:

Thank you for your recent gift in support of the John and Mary Smith Scholarship in the Division of Student Affairs at the University of Maryland. We truly appreciate the investments in our future made by our generous alumni and friends.

As we near the end of Great Expectations, The Campaign for Maryland, the generosity of our supporters is evident in every achievement, accolade and distinction bestowed upon our campus community. Among recent Maryland milestones:

The Chronicle of Higher Education recently named the University of Maryland among the top producers of Fulbright scholars in the United States, with 12 scholars accepted into the prestigious international exchange program in the 2010-2011 academic year.

The University of Maryland has also been named an Intelligence Community “Center for Academic Excellence” by the U.S. government. We are one of only 14 universities chosen nationwide to participate in the program that provides funding to prepare students for government service and leadership positions in the Intelligence Community.

And while federal analysis of nearly 1,400 four-year institutions shows that one-third of them reported lower graduation rates between 2003 and 2008, the University of Maryland’s graduation rate increased a remarkable 11 points during the same time period.

What is perhaps most noteworthy is the economic value of a University of Maryland education. This year, we ranked 5th in Kiplinger’s Personal Finance magazine’s annual ranking of the 100 Best Values in Public Colleges and also made Princeton Review’s list of the 50 Best Values in Public Education.

We are most grateful for the commitment to education displayed by our dedicated friends and alumni. Please accept my thanks on behalf of the entire University of Maryland community.

Sincerely,

In this milestone year, donations of all amounts are making a difference at the University of Oklahoma. Your gift counts.

For the purpose of this sharing exercise, names have been changed to protect identities.

Dear

I came to UPEI in 2008 as a major step to achieving a better life for my daughter, Rebecca, and me. Having such a great university on PEI means that I am able to raise Rebecca close to my family home in Montague. The support that I found here has been amazing and I couldn't imagine being anywhere else.

Students at UPEI are surrounded by caring professors, a beautiful campus, and a friendly community. From well equipped labs to a well stocked library, UPEI has everything students need to succeed. I seize the many opportunities that are available to me in the nursing program, and strive to do my best. I also have immense respect for the people who make it possible for me to achieve my dream – people like you!

When you chose to make your gift through the UPEI Annual Fund Campaign this year, you chose to support students like me, and I am grateful and honoured to be given the opportunity to thank you for believing in UPEI and its students.

For Rebecca and me, a UPEI education is the key to a bright future, just as it is for every student here on campus. I will continue to work hard in my studies and become a medical professional that you will be proud to have supported.

Thank you again for your generosity. It means so much.

Dear <DONOR>:

Thank you for your gift of <$$$>.

Fall is a special time on a college campus. There is a palpable sense of excitement and anticipation as we prepare for the return of students. For many young people, this is their first time living away from home and not only will they be learning in the classroom, they will be laying the foundation for who they will become later in life. When asked what type of student fits in best at UR, one young graduate replied:

"I think whoever you are, you can be comfortable here. But, you do have to come with a passion for learning if you want to be successful. We have many different kinds of students here – people from all different walks of life. The academic is comfortable here, and the athlete is comfortable here, and the artist is comfortable here. We don't have one specific type of student. Some people find their passion in activities, some people find it in sports, I happen to find mine in academics, and reading." K.S. '10

This is true not only of our undergraduates, but also for the adult learners and graduate students who attend the University on our satellite campuses throughout Southern California (including our newest School of Education campus in Orange County). Their academic experience may be very different, but they too are laying foundations for their futures.

We are proud of the fact that UR provides a welcoming new home for students. We are equally proud of the example set by those who have gone before and choose to ensure that the UR of the future will continue to be a vibrant and welcoming place.

Sincerely,

Dear «FIRST_NAME»,

Thank you for your gift to Penn Nursing's Annual Giving Fund. Your generosity is an essential part of the continued success of our School's education, research and practice. The Annual Fund supports our most needed projects, allowing Penn Nursing the flexibility to respond to current challenges and quickly take advantage of new opportunities. It is this kind of support that has helped Penn Nursing rise to first place in National Institutes of Health research funding, attract a record number of students and create state-of-the-art facilities for excellence in education and leadership.

Dear «FIRST_NAME»,

Thank you for your gift to the Friends of Penn Nursing Fund in support of student scholarships. Your support is truly meaningful to me and to all of the Friends of Penn Nursing volunteers as we prepare to welcome a new cadre of talented young nurses this fall – many of whom rely on support like this to fulfill their dream of a Penn Nursing education and world-changing nursing care.

Your generosity makes a remarkable difference in the lives of our students, enabling nearly a dozen Penn Nursing students to focus more on the lasting lessons of their education and less on their tuition bill. Each year, Friends of Penn Nursing like you add to the legacy of student support at our School. With an enthusiastic response already this year, I know we will continue this incredible tradition. Thank you for celebrating a new academic year with a commitment to educational excellence.

«FIRST_NAME», you may have noticed that Claire Fagin herself is one of our Friends of Penn Nursing Co-Chairs this year – a meaningful parallel as we celebrate two years since the first phase of renovations to the building that bears her name and attracts the best and brightest future nurses and nurse researchers. I know I speak for Claire and myself when I say that it is friends like you who inspire us to dedicate every day to the cultivation of our students and the excellence of our programs.
